Bonus Material

As part of the BSME Leaders and Aspiring Leaders Conference, RSAcademics are offering delegates complementary, one-to-one, career counselling sessions with expert consultants in their leadership appointments team.

Delegates will have the chance to discuss their career ambitions and preferences and what steps they might take in order to realise them. The conversations will take place online and will last approximately half an hour. Delegates will be asked to submit their CV in advance to ensure the time is well spent.
