

Business Completer Programs

For those students who are interested in a business major, Carroll County Public Schools offers business completers, which allow students to take a career-focused sequence of classes. All business completers have college credits available upon successful completion of the program. At the end of each program, participating students take an industry-standard assessment that verifies student achievement. This is a jump-start for the future! These are two of a number of advantages to committing to a business completer program. College, job and scholarship applications are enhanced, as completion of these programs shows a high level of personal achievement, commitment and focus. Simply stated, students leave high school with a good academic and skill base to expand upon in college.

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

The Carroll County Public Schools (CCPS) is firmly committed to creating equal employment and educational opportunities for all persons with regard to its employment practices and in the provision of services, programs, and activities.

The CCPS does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, genetic information, marital status, mental or physical disability, ancestry or national origin, race, religion, sex, or sexual orientation. The CCPS provides non-discriminatory access to school facilities in accordance with its policies and regulations regarding the community use of schools (including, but not limited to, the Boy Scouts).

The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the nondiscrimination policies:

Why Pursue Business Education?

Do something for your future today!

If you plan to have a career in a business field such as accounting, marketing, or business management, then you have probably already considered taking business classes in high school.

Business education is beneficial for anyone, from surgeons to graphic designers. Most college students are enrolled in a business-related major.

Even if you don't plan on heading some big corporation, basic knowledge of business and finance will prove indispensable. In fact, business sense is one of the most sought-after skills by employers. It can easily be the trait that lands you a job.

Besides making you market-savvy, business education will help you improve communication skills, learn to lead, and will give you a foundation to achieve success.
