

The Anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Poster Contest

Mayor Erin E. Stewart and the Commission on Persons with Disabilities has initiated a poster contest to celebrate the 30th Anniversary of the ADA. The posters are intended to spark a conversation about accessibility and inclusion of people with disabilities. The poster contest is open to all New Britain residents. The artwork shall relate to the 30th Anniversary of the ADA and the significance of access and inclusion for all people with disabilities.

The Commission on Persons with Disabilities will select the winning artwork from all the entries through a submission and judging process. The winning artwork, along with information on the artist, will be featured on a poster that will be promoted throughout the city
