Parent "Brag Sheet"

Very often, parental insight can provide valuable information, which is worth including in a comprehensive counselor recommendation for a student. Please take a few minutes to respond to the following questions. Your comments will be appreciated. Please provide your responses on a separate sheet attached to this questionnaire so you do not feel your responses need to be confined to the space between questions. Thank you for your time.

Name of Student _____ Counselor _____

1. Please list some of your child's most outstanding accomplishments, in and out of school, during their high school career? Why did you select these as important?
2. In what areas has your son/daughter shown the most development and growth during the high school years?
3. Something you should know about my child is..... (Please site specific examples from your child's life-for example, experiences outside of school that highlight your child's motivation, independence, etc.)
4. Are there any unusual personal or family circumstances or influences, which have affected your child's educational experience?
5. If you had to describe your child with five adjectives, what would they be?
6. Is there anything else you think I should know about your child that you would allow me to share with the college(s) he/she is applying.
