Please answer these questions as thoroughly as you can. This information will be used when writing your counselor letter of recommendation.

1. What do you want colleges to know about you that will not be in your college application?
2. What do you consider your greatest strengths? Why? How have you demonstrated those strengths? Give examples to support them.
3. List three extra-curricular activities (sports, jobs, volunteering, etc.) and explain the importance of them in your life. What significant contribution have you made to these activities?
4. Please describe any leadership roles or unique volunteer work you have been involved with during high school.
5. How would your teachers describe you? Please elaborate and give examples.
6. Describe what you are like in class.
7. Discuss any circumstance(s) or personal hardships at home or in school that have impeded your academic success, i.e.; family, financial, social, etc. and what did you do to overcome this obstacle? What did you learn from this experience?
8. Please share any unique family situations that would help us better understand you. Are there any special circumstances, background information or other factors which may be relevant?
9. What type of work do you hope to be doing 10 years from now
10. Is there any other information you would like to share or feel is important that I know as I write your letter of recommendation?
