Where am I covered (Geographical Limits)?

- ✓ You are covered from when you travel outside of your home country to the United Kingdom and
 - whilst in United Kingdom for the purpose of undertaking the language course, and
 - whilst travelling within Europe for a maximum of 14 days undertaken directly before, directly after or during the period of time over which the language course is provided for pleasure, rest and relaxation purposes.

What are my obligations?

- You and any other person covered must be under 75 years of age when any trip commences and have booked to attend a language course with the school/educational establishment that is providing this cover
- If you need medical treatment and/or repatriation, AmTrust Assistance must be contacted as soon as possible on +44(0)203 003 6900 (available 24 hours a day), for authorisation, assistance and the management of the costs. They will guide you to the best place to receive treatment and if possible guarantee the expense. Please let the call handler know if you wish to discuss your claim in a language other than English and tell them the policy number.
- We require a claim form to be completed for all non-medical assistance claims no later than 60 days after the event and returned to us at the address shown on the claim form/policy document. This form is available from the group policyholder on request. The claim may be rejected if it is so long after the event that we are unable to investigate fully
- You must provide the supporting documents, police or carrier reports and other evidence we ask for to deal with your claim at your own expense. Please send the completed form to us even if you do not have all the supporting documents ready so that we may record the claim and give you a claim number
- In the event of a claim for loss of course fees you must ensure that this section of the claim form must be completed by the group policyholder before we will consider the claim
- When applying for insurance and making a claim you must take care to answer the questions asked honestly and accurately
- You must consent to release of your medical records and to be medically examined if required by us
- If you need to cancel your trip you must not delay in notifying the language school plus the transport and accommodation providers, so that their charges are kept to a minimum.
- If you are notified that that you have injured someone or damaged their property whilst on a trip and they are seeking damages or you have a legal summons, you must tell us immediately.

Failure to meet the policy obligations may result in claims being rejected, a reduction in the amount paid, a change in the premium or the cancellation of the policy.

When and how do I pay?

Premiums are included in the fees charged by the language school fees whom you have booked your course. They will advise details of when payment is due and the payment options available to you.

The language school pays us in accordance with the agreement we have with them.

When does the cover start and end?

Once the policy with the Policyholder has started, Cancellation cover for you starts on the date the trip to undertake the course is booked and ends when this trip begins.

Cover under all other policy sections begins when you depart from your home country and ends when you return to your home country.

How do I cancel the contract?

You have no right to cancel this policy, only to be no longer covered by it. To withdraw from the policy please contact the policyholder.

The policy may be cancelled by us by giving 30 days written notice to the policyholder.
