

Appleby Overnight FAQ

- Will ages/gender be separated?
  - Yes, we will do our best to group campers by age and gender.
- Can we request friends to be together?
  - Yes, when you are filling out the online application, there is a spot specific for Appleby Overnight friend requests- please have both campers request each other.
- What will supervision be like at night?
  - Each floor will have at least one Instructor in a well-marked room to ensure all campers are safe and available for any support.
- What is the bathroom situation?
  - Most rooms share a bathroom with an adjoining room.
- How will the Campers get to Appleby Overnight at the end of the camp day, how will they get to camp in the morning?
  - Campers will be signed out of their camp and escorted to the Appleby Overnight Program Instructors where they will be signed into Appleby Overnight. Similarly, in the morning- Appleby Overnight Instructors will walk Campers to their designated camp after breakfast and sign them in with their Specific Instructor.
- How do meals work? What about snacks?
  - Campers will be escorted by Appleby Overnight Instructors to and from the Dining Hall for Breakfast and Dinner.
  - Snacks will be provided for campers to pick up after breakfast to have with them for the day. Instructors will ensure all campers have a snack with them to keep their bodies fueled for a busy day!
- What kind of programming will happen at the end of the camp day?
  - Campers will get to experience “camp-wide” activities we do not normally have the chance to run during the camp day. Activities can include and are not limited to the following: Capture the Flag, Stones, Talent Shows, Campfires, Silly Stories, and Morning Yoga. There may be opportunities to break off into smaller groups as well.
- Will campers be broken into age groups for camp-wide activities?
  - Campers will most likely participate all together, but at times we will break off into smaller groups (within the larger group) if a different type of Instruction is needed.
- What will I need to pack?
  - A packing list will be sent to all Appleby Overnight Campers upon acceptance to the program.
- What will Campers do during the day?

- Campers will register for a camp of their choice (ex. Exploring the Sports) and will attend the camp as scheduled (drop off at 8:30am and pick up between 3:30-4:00pm). The Appleby Overnight Program will start once they are picked up at the end of their camp day.
