About Sacred Heart Greenwich

Who We Are. Sacred Heart Greenwich is an all-girls, Catholic, independent college preparatory day school. Sacred Heart Greenwich provides a challenging, empowering, and inclusive learning environment for girls and young women from kindergarten through twelfth grade to prepare them to become confident, intelligent, and compassionate global leaders. The School offers a coed program for young children at the Barat Center for Early Childhood Education.

Faith. Community. Growth. Intellect. Justice. These are the criteria that set Sacred Heart Greenwich apart from other independent schools and our culture, identity, and mission are deeply linked to the Sacred Heart Goals & Criteria:

- A personal and active faith in God
- A deep respect for intellectual values
- A social awareness which impels to action
- The building of community as a Christian value
- Personal growth in an atmosphere of wise freedom

History. Global Reach. Founded in 1848, Sacred Heart Greenwich is one of the 200 worldwide Network of Sacred Heart schools located in 44 countries. The 22 independent Network schools located in the United States share a common heritage and vision exemplified by a set of shared Goals & Criteria.

About Sacred Heart Greenwich

Mission Statement

Guided by the Goals & Criteria, Sacred Heart Greenwich is committed to educating and developing the whole student: intellectual, spiritual, emotional, and physical in an inclusive environment where all feel valued, respected, and experience a sense of belonging.

The Sacred Heart Journey

As Greenwich's only faith-based school for girls, Sacred Heart offers all that and more. Sacred Heart's educational philosophy emanates from its profound spiritual and educational heritage, and from its commitment to meet the challenges of a changing world with innovative classroom strategies and new technologies. But the true hallmark of a Sacred Heart education rests on the commitment to educate the whole child. Through the transformational relationships between educators and students, individuals come to understand that they are loved by God and can utilize their gifts and talents to change society. In that context, students are joyfully immersed in a learning environment with no academic ceiling. Whether a child arrives at Sacred Heart in Lower, Middle, or Upper School, each girl is inspired to be-and do-her very best.

Faith Life and its Inclusive Global Community

The strength of a Sacred Heart education is firmly grounded in the belief that faith is at the heart of each student's identity. Proud of its Catholic heritage, the community has a warm and inclusive ethos that welcomes students of diverse faith and backgrounds. The school promotes the development of a strong and active faith in God by providing its young women with religious education and experiences that cultivate spiritual growth and a moral core of integrity, strength, and compassion

Each student is encouraged to explore, express, and deepen her personal faith through participation in liturgies, prayer services and retreats. Religious education is woven into the curriculum and through social justice and service programs, students experience faith in action. The network exchange programs enrich faith life by providing students the understanding that every Sacred Heart school across the globe follows the same Goals and Criteria which are the foundation of the Society of the Sacred Heart's educational mission. Likewise, the signature Global Scholars Program has a core requirement that students develop a service research project with a global strand.

The Sacred Heart Sisterhood—A Community for Life

Sisterhood. A second home. Ask any Sacred Heart student to describe her relationship with her classmates and her school, and those are the words you will hear. Each girl who comes to Sacred Heart's serene hilltop campus is unique and brimming with potential. By providing an intentional balance between learning and living, Sacred Heart cultivates a vibrant community that challenges and inspires students to grow academically, artistically, athletically, and personally. Current research points to the effectiveness of all-girls education for young women. Graduates of girls' schools account for a significant percentage of women in leadership positions in industry, academia, public life, and other professions. At Sacred Heart, each student has the freedom to be uniquely herself, finding a myriad of opportunities to discover and use her voice within a joyful, supportive community. Students are not just a Sacred Heart girl during their time on King Street. They remain a Sacred Heart girl for life.
