

Examples of Ways to Partner with Schools

Provide corporate expertise in management and strategic planning to schools

Join an advisory board or a school improvement team

Become a speaker for Maryland Business Roundtable's "Achievement Counts"

Provide career shadowing or internship experiences for a student

Help to develop instructional plans and materials

Tutor Students at any level

Sponsor or chaperone a field trip

Donate equipment, training and materials

Create incentive and motivational programs to reward students for achievement

Sponsor and support an after school club such as a robotics club

Volunteer to do mock Interviews at your local high school

Speak at a high school career day

Provide summer internships for teachers

Offer to share expertise at any level in the classroom

Support Newspapers in Education

Become a guest speaker in a classroom

Mentor or tutor a student

Offer a business discount to school system employees

Serve as a judge for an academic competition or fair

Work with the CCPS partnership office to develop a county-wide partnership