Julie Tanner: Gave her appreciation for community council.

Discussed strategic plan of:

Healthy, respectful, collaborative, culture.

*Teachers working together in a grade level.

*Hope squad, kids on the buddy bench and getting that student-to-student interaction and support.

*ASC Students help each other

*She discussed the role of the school board

After school programs- Erika

- a. Archery: Cost is about $3,200 to start the program. Ericka will be in charge.
Step 1: James and Cindy will look to see if the district can come and put anchors in the wall.
- b. Allowing all students to participate by teaching it during PE classes.

Fundraising to helping raise funds for the archery club: Twisted Sugar is a good fundraiser to get funds for the club. Cindy and James will look into this.

- c. Theater Play: Parent volunteers are welcome, parent involvement teachers working to allow parents to come.
- d. Cindy asks for Stacey to let Endeavor know if we need a license to do a school play.
- e. I will call my sister-in-law Emily to see how her elementary does the school play
- f. James will call Hannah Holbrook elementary to see how they do it.
- g. Send Julie an invite to the school play if we do one.

FYI: 4th Grade is the only grade who doesn't have a club.

4. Review of Training-Lisa
  - a. School Community Counsel 101-YouTube
  - b. SCC Member Fall training -YouTube

Member training community council training are on youtube. Search USBC and land trust.

Fall training about an hour/skip to the break-out sessions. They have monthly emails. Community Council is in charge of school safety, influence over positive academic and parent concerns.

Teacher, Student, success plan.

During our next meeting we are to discuss how were using funds to help with academics. James will review and remind us.

The training doesn't change much from year to year.

Other:

In spring we will re-do the fall festival.

Next meeting: Dec. 14th @ 4:00pm
