Nuestro trabajo en clase/ Our work in class...

Diciembre es un tiempo especial para celebrar muchas tradiciones culturales y fiestas especiales. ¡Este mes leímos sobre ellos y practicamos escribiendo resúmenes.

December is a special time to celebrate many cultural traditions and special holidays. This month we read about them and practiced our summary skills!

Summarize 5 Summarize this paragraph in one sentence.
People started decorating fir trees at Christmas time in the 1500s in Germany. They used dried pinecones and colored paper as decorations. About a century later, people in France started using small candles to hang from the branches of the trees. The candles to the branches were melted wax.

Summarize 6 Summarize this paragraph in one sentence.
The candle holder that is used for Kwanzaa is called a Kinara. It holds seven candles of different colors. The black candle in the middle represents the先民 (ancestors). People light the red candles starting from the left. The green candle is lit last. The red candle has been lit. The green candle represents hope and the motherland of Africa.

Summarize 7 Summarize this paragraph in one sentence.
People often eat latkes on Hanukkah. Latkes are potato pancakes that are fried in oil and served with sour cream or applesauce.

Summarize 8 Summarize this paragraph in one sentence.
Candy canes first appeared in Europe in the 1600s. They were meant to represent the three wise men. Candy canes were given to children during ceremonies to celebrate the birth of Jesus. In the mid 1800s that candy canes began to be used to decorate Christmas trees.

Id: Latin and Romance Languages

One of the most lasting influences from the Roman Empire was Latin. Latin died out as a spoken language in about 700 AD, but it is still spoken in many countries around the world. Many of the languages spoken today in Europe and the Americas are descended from Latin.

The shaded area of this map shows the greatest extent of Latin influence. Match the letter of the country on each map with the name of the country.

Celebraciones Culturales/ Cultural Celebrations

El Día de Reyes/ Three Kings Day

Después del día de Año Nuevo, las familias mexicanas aún tienen una fecha muy especial para conmemorar y disfrutar. El 6 de enero, la mayor parte del mundo y la cultura hispana celebra El Día de Reyes, La Epifanía, recordando el día en que los Reyes Magos que seguían la estrella a Belén llegaron con sus preciados obsequios de oro, incienso y mirra para el Niño Jesús.

After New Year's Day, Mexican families still have a very special date to commemorate and enjoy. On January 6, most of the Hispanic world & culture celebrates El Dia De Reyes, the Epiphany, remembering the day when the Three Wise Men following the star to Bethlehem, arrived bearing their treasured gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh for the Baby Jesus.

Jánuca

Del 02 al 09 de Diciembre, los judíos en Israel y en el mundo, celebran la festividad de Jánuca, que conmemora el milagro del aceite en las lámparas.

La palabra hebrea Jánuca significa "inauguración". En el siglo 2 AEC, la época del Segundo Templo Sagrado, el régimen sirio-griego de Antíoco pretendió alejar a los judíos del judaísmo, con la esperanza de asimilarlos a la cultura griega. Los judíos se resistieron y liderados por Matityahu y luego por su hijo Yehuda el Macabeo, se levantaron contra los griegos.

From December 02 to 09, Jews in Israel and the world celebrate the Hanukkah holiday, which commemorates the miracle of the oil in the lamps.

The Hebrew word Hanukkah means "inauguration." In the 2nd century BCE, the time of the Second Holy Temple, the Syrian-Greek regime of Antiochus sought to alienate Jews from Judaism, hoping to assimilate them into Greek culture. The Jews resisted and led by Matityahu and later by his son Yehuda the Maccabee, they rose up against the Greeks.

Research has shown a strong correlation between a family's engagement in a child's education and the student's academic achievement. We strive to have our students reach their learning potential through partnering with families.

Yet, we also understand that the education process can be confusing, especially for families who have a student with special needs. That is why ISAC is proud to partner with WCSD's Executive Director, Steven Hernandez, to help our families understand the IEP and present information on how to advocate for your child.

Estudios han demostrado que hay una fuerte correlación entre el compromiso de una familia en la educación de su hijo y el logro académico del estudiante. Los estudiantes.

Sin embargo, también entendemos que el proceso educativo puede ser confuso, especialmente para las familias que tienen un estudiante con necesidades especiales de educación especial. Por lo tanto, ISAC se complace en asociarse con el Director Ejecutivo de WCSD, Steven Hernandez, para ayudar a nuestras familias a entender mejor el IEP y presentar información sobre sus derechos como padres. El Sr. Steven Hernandez es un hablante nativo de español que busca asegurar oportunidades de aprendizaje equitativas para todas las personas.
