  - Secretary – Audrey Donovan – Approved by All Members
- Review of School Mission and Vision
  - Actions we take need to align to our mission and vision
  - We will talk throughout the school year about if our goals fit our mission and vision
- Presentation of Student Achievement Data: FastBridge Results
  - Risk students primarily from youngers grades
- Presentation of Student Achievement Data: ELPAC Reclassifications
  - Reclassifications – 10% proficient, which means well-developed
  - Level 4 to be reclassified
  - Slider’s tend to be 3rd grade and middle school, where the reclassification ELPAC scoring gets more difficult

6. Open Issues

- Parent concern - Homework influx
  - We have hired an intervention para to help with catch up work
- COVID was tough for students, but students have picked back up to succeed
- Different levels of distractions
- Intervention Services:
  - Lex Sommers Intervention Para for Elementary School
  - Kids learn at different speeds, and at different rates
  - Putting in place 30-minute block each day of flooding grade level with support
  - For some students that 30 minutes still may not be enough
  - Middle School support will look very different
  - Middle school support will potentially be before or after school intervention
- Parking Lot – gets very backed up in the mornings
  - After school pick-up, students crossing issue, airport style keep moving
  - Bus loop – Parking in the bus loop and walking kids up
  - By street gate people making u-turns by marquee then parking in front
- PE policy for air-quality?
  - Be outside and active as much as possible
  - We do get updates from TUSD when air quality is unhealthy
