

HALL MEMORIAL LIBRARY
BULLETIN BOARD AND LITERATURE RACK POLICY

The Hall Memorial Library maintains bulletin boards and literature racks to provide Ellington residents with information about cultural, educational, recreational, civic, or service-oriented events and opportunities in our community and surrounding areas.

- Postings of the Hall Memorial Library, Town of Ellington, and Ellington civic groups and organizations shall be given priority. Postings of other groups will be displayed as space allows.
- Only non-profit event or organization information may be posted or displayed; other postings are at the discretion of the library staff.
- All items must be delivered to a library staff member. Items shall be posted or displayed and removed by library staff only.
- The Library reserves the right to not post or display materials that are deemed inappropriate.
- The Library does not advocate or endorse the content or viewpoints of these events or organizations.
