

By the end of the school year, First Grade Media students should be able to:

Literature Exploration
<ul style="list-style-type: none">-Identify several authors and characteristics of their writing-Evaluate and respond to literature-Determine theme (author's message)
Information Literacy/Research Skills
<ul style="list-style-type: none">-Search for information using subject categories (example: selecting appropriate pictures on PebbleGo)-Search for information using keywords in search windows (example: type in "dog" to locate information on dogs in PebbleGo)-Develop questions to guide research process-Determine important information/main idea for taking notes using a graphic organizer using words and phrases-Demonstrate understanding of plagiarism<ul style="list-style-type: none">-Cite the title and date of a source-Copy full MLA citations when appropriate from databases-Create products to express new understandings
Digital Citizenship
<ul style="list-style-type: none">-Demonstrate understanding of Internet safety and how to keep personal information private Library Literacy
<ul style="list-style-type: none">-Identify parts of a book-Demonstrate understanding of ABC Order by applying to shelf order in Everybody Section-Explain Numerical Order and continue to apply to shelf order-Demonstrate understanding of media routines-Demonstrate understanding of book care-Navigate Destiny Homepage to access databases-Log in to access and navigate an e book-Classify, compare and contrast books as fiction or nonfiction using call numbers-Demonstrate a beginning understanding of call numbers by locating items on the Everybody and Nonfiction shelves