

December 16,
2021

Library Newsletter

“Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body”

Joseph Addison

Follett Web-Path Express Offers Students Access to a Variety of Credible Sources

Follett Web-Path Express – an online, dynamic database – is a fantastic gateway to research. On Follett Web-Path Express, students can explore subject guides in a number of fields ranging from education to economics to health and fitness in primary and secondary sources.

Follett Web-Path Express can train students in searching for materials through a database, narrowing results, and reading for information. This database is suitable for PreK-12 students. To visit the site, please click on the following link:

<https://olgschool.follettdestiny.com/cataloging/servlet/presentwresearchform.do?12m=WebPath%20Express>

“There is no friend
as loyal as a book”

-Ernest Hemingway

New Books added to the Library

The Library invites you to check out the new books that have been cataloged as of December 16, 2021:

Every Falling Star by Sungju Lee and Susan McClelland, The Adventures of a Girl Called Bicycle by Christina Uss, The Red Pyramid by Rick Riordan, War Stories: True Stories from the First and Second World Wars by Paul Dowswell, Where Is Hollywood? by Dina Anastasio, Bomb by Steve Sheinkin, and We’re Not Really From Here by Geoff Rodkey.

Make a Mix-Tape via CitizenDJ

The Library of Congress Lab CitizenDJ is an interactive lab that enables users to create hip-hop mix-tapes from famous songs. Users of the site can explore, remix, and browse and download songs of their own making. To try this site, visit <https://citizen-dj.labs.loc.gov/loc-edison/explore/>

