I understand that a parent or guardian (over 18 years of age) must be present when students get on the bus to go to school and when students are dropped off after school. If a parent or guardian is not there to get the student off the bus and the bus driver can not contact the parent or guardian, the student will be returned to school and I will be charged a $25 late pick-up fee. The Community Education staff will make every effort to contact all parent/guardian and emergency contacts and if no one can be reached within 60 minutes, the local authorities will be called to take custody of the student. Transportation rights may be revoked if the student is repeatedly returned to school.
