Fundraisers must comply with the Region's Policy on School Fund Raisers. If food and/or beverage items are being sold to students during the school day, they must meet the Region's Nutrition Guidelines for Foods Sold in Schools and the Connecticut Nutrition Standards for Healthy Foods and Beverages. Selling foods may require a permit from the area health department. Please see the guidelines available at each school or visit the Region's website at www.ctreg14.org for additional information.

Exemption: Any type of food or beverage for sale to students is allowed if all of the following three conditions are met:

1. The sale is in connection with an event* occurring after the regular school day or on the weekend
2. The sale is at the location of the event*
3. The food and/or beverages are not sold from a vending machine or school store

*Event examples: Athletic games, theater productions

Examples of non-events that do not qualify for the above food or beverage exemption: Athletic or Fine Arts practices, meetings, or rehearsals

Sales of food and/or beverage items from catalogs or order forms: The catalog/order form may be sent home with the student. The student may sell the food or beverage items and return the proceeds to the school. The parent/guardian or other adult must pick up the items upon delivery.

Sales of food tickets, coupons, tokens, or similar items that are redeemable for food is the same as selling food to students unless it meets the exemptions listed above. Otherwise, food and/or beverages must meet the Connecticut Nutrition Standards.
