Merry Christmas

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

I write this Christmas message on December 14th in anticipation of our Christmas celebration. Today, sunrise took place after 7 am and sunset will occur before 5 pm. The days continue to share with us less light and the nights are longer. This Christmas, as is the case with all Christmases, we will be on the other side of that equation. The days will be longer. It will be imperceptible at first, but it will become more evident as the days and weeks continue. Light is one of the great Christmas images. Jesus is the light that conquers the darkness, the love that destroys even the power of death.

To the first recipients of the Christmas message, Jesus' identity and presence must have also been unfolding. It must have all seemed so ordinary: swaddling clothes, a manger (for animals' use) as a bed, and a humble, ordinary mother and father. Jesus chose to come to a humble couple, an occupied country, and to share our flesh, not as a king or celebrity but to a seemingly common family. From such humility and ordinariness springs our salvation.

Christmas is celebrated in a season of increasing light and the surprise of the power of the ordinary. God chooses the ordinary to remind us of the power of light and love to transform the world. At our baptism, we are given one lighted candle to show the power and the difference the light and love that one person can bring into our world. There is nothing ordinary about the choice to bring these gifts into the lives of others each day.

Christmas is the gift giving season. Many of us take time and bring intention to the gifts we choose to give. Christmas tells us that God gave us the greatest gift Jesus – for our salvation. Jesus is God's self-gift. Please do not forget that you are the great gift God asks you to be for this world. Share your light and your love.

Merry Christmas!

Fr. Matt

The social happens on the 1st Sunday of every month. This is a great opportunity to gather with family & friends. The Knights of Columbus Santa Maria Council will be organizing this with additional parish groups sponsoring and serving at the social. In a spirit of Care for the Common Home (Laudato Si), the Care for Creation Team is requesting that you limit the trash you leave behind and bring your own coffee mug or juice cup to the Donut Social each month. You'll limit what goes in the landfill and get to show some personal flair. Get to know your neighbor by their mug, a conversation starter!

In the words of Tiny Tim, "God bless us, everyone!"

Parish Updates

This past November, we welcomed Richard Jones through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. May God continue to bless Richard abundantly as he celebrates the sacraments and a deepening of his life in Christ!

OLGC Inclement Weather Policy:

Please check webpage for updates. In case of inclement weather, we follow the Fairfax County Public Schools schedule which is announced on TV, radio, and www.fcps.edu. We will also post the announcement on the school and church websites. This includes closures, delayed openings, or afternoon/evening activities being canceled.

When OLGC School is closed, all activities on campus are canceled for the entire day, except for the celebration of Mass (the church will be closed after Mass). All are advised to use extreme caution when making the decision about attending Mass and keep in mind your personal safety and the safety of others. If you decide to attend Mass please enter through the Niblick entrance. The lower parking lot and bell tower lot will be plowed first.

All Zoom scheduled classes, meetings, and activities will take place no matter the weather, as long as the facilitator has electricity and internet.

From the Office of Advancement:

The OLGC Office of Advancement and The Wildcat Fund thank our generous community members and donors for their gifts of time, talent, and treasure in 2021. Because of your generous acts, we are pleased to celebrate the success of two major Advancement initiatives this year:

- ✦ The 20th Annual Golf Classic on November 8th raised over $50,000 for general tuition assistance for families at OLGC School and reunited our community in a day full of fun, fellowship, and sport!
- ✦ Giving Tuesday, held on November 30th, raised over $26,000 for the Church and the School's Wildcat Fund.

Your gifts and participation make a difference in the lives of our community members, students, and all of our OLGC families. We are grateful for your continued partnership in Moving Forward Together in the Service of God and Rising Higher.

End of Year Giving Reminders:

- Does your company offer a matching gift program? Let us help you understand the program and make the most of your giving options! Did you know that an estimated $4-$7 billion in matching gift funds goes unclaimed per year. Average employee participation in employer matching gift programs is only 10%.
- Do you use the standard deduction on your tax return? If so, this year you can make a charitable gift up to $300 and deduct it directly from your income. This is referred to as the "universal deduction." It's an "above the line" deduction, meaning it may be subtracted from your gross income before your adjusted gross income is calculated.
- Rather than cash, donate some shares of stock in which you have a gain. This way, you can donate the full amount and don't need to pay taxes on the capital gains. You deduct the full amount in your itemized deductions.

We want to make sure you make the most of your gifts and thank you for all of your support. Please contact The Office of Advancement with questions: advancement@olgcva.org

Las oficinas parroquiales estarán cerradas durante las fiestas de Navidad y Año Nuevo del 23 al 27 de diciembre y luego del 30 de diciembre al 3 de enero. La escuela está cerrada del 20 de diciembre al 2 de enero.

- Confesiones: últimas oportunidades para la confesión durante el mes de diciembre en español serán el sábado 18 de 9am a 9:30am y de lunes a jueves únicamente con cita. Puede llamar y hacer una cita con el Padre Mateo durante la semana al 703-938-2828 ext. 108. o envíe un correo electrónico a frhillyard@olgcv.org. No se escuchan confesiones los domingos en ninguna de las misas ni antes o después de ellas.
- Ya comenzaremos a recibir las intenciones de misas para el año 2022. El proceso será el mismo que en los años pasados, debido al limitado número de misas celebradas en nuestra parroquia y la abrumadora solicitud de intenciones para misas, cada persona se limitará a tres intenciones de misas por el año. Sin embargo, hay intenciones de misas ilimitadas celebradas por los sacerdotes oblatos retirados en Childs Maryland en la casa de retiro. Puede presentar su solicitud para las misas en línea <https://www.olgcv.org/liturgy-worship/devotions/mass/olgc> en persona imprimiendo el formulario <https://resources.finalsite.net/images/v1635846711/olgc/yidaxvdt503zedcrsyfe/MassIntentionsRequestForm.pdf>, en las oficinas parroquiales, o en el Centro de Bienvenida. Las misas se otorgarán en el orden que sean recibidas.

- El Condado de Fairfax Según la guía actualizada publicada por los Centros para el Control y la Prevención de Enfermedades (CDC) la semana pasada, el Departamento de Salud del Condado de Fairfax recomendó que todos, incluidas las personas completamente vacunadas contra COVID-19, usen mascarillas en entornos públicos cerrados. <https://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/covid19/spanish/blog/indoor-maskin>. Por favor, no venga a las instalaciones si está enfermo o ha estado cerca de alguien que está enfermo. Le pedimos por favor consideren usar sus mascarillas cuando asista a misa, incluyendo las personas completamente vacunadas contra COVID-19, dado que el número de casos de sigue aumentando con la propagación de la variante Delta. HAPPY NEW YEAR! – Wishing you an abundance of blessings in the new year, one filled with happiness, good health, and a peaceful heart!

CAREGIVING IS A 24/7 LABOR OF LOVE – That’s the title of the featured article of this month’s Kiplinger’s Retirement Report. More and more often, we’re seeing articles about caregiving and caregivers, those invisible helpers, giving up everything. Often, it’s their jobs, retirement savings, even their own health sacrificed to care for an ailing or incapacitated family member. A MetLife study found that the average caregiver sacrificed more than $300,000 in lifetime earnings from lost wages, retirement benefits, and Social Security. Self-neglect is practically a requirement. They make sure their loved ones get all the medications and nutrition they need, but often, late at night, they’re the ones going through the drive-in for dinner.

Most caregivers cobble together extra help from other family members, along with paid services such as Meals on Wheels. And while once women made up most of the caregiver force, today 55% of them are women, and 45% are men, and they’re not a young group. Research shows the average family caregiver is 49 years old, and about a third of them are 65 and older. Many caregivers also care for more than one person.

This is a system in crisis. Medicare generally doesn’t cover the kind of nonmedical home-based care that family members provide daily, and middle-class families won’t qualify for Medicaid unless they bankrupt themselves first. For many caregivers, home health aides are a lifeline, but the cost through an agency is about $25 an hour, with the aide getting less than half that. You could hire the aide directly for less, but as the employer, you’re responsible for paying Social Security and Medicare payroll taxes. Even so, it’s more than most families can afford. Meanwhile, the soaring costs of long-term care insurance have priced out many people.

Families often aren’t aware of the benefits they have. That’s why it’s a good idea to connect with a geriatric care manager who will review your medical insurance plans and consider what else you might be eligible for through community resources or government programs. Hourly rates for care managers range from $125-$250, depending on location. They’ll discuss the level of care required, assess a home’s setup for the person needing care, and draft a plan for graduated care that you can turn to as needed.

According to the report, if you really need a nonmedical home care service to relieve the caregiver, you’ll want to review the following. First of all, you should start early. The pandemic and a shifting job market have made it harder to find home health aides. Plus, the first person you hire may not be the best fit, and the first schedule you create may not be what you need long term.

Ask questions. The agency is responsible for conducting background checks on the aides. Ask what it checks. You need to be able to trust this person around your home. Because caregiving is physically demanding work that can sometimes injure the caregiver, make sure the agency is licensed, bonded, and insured. You should also check with your own insurer if you need to make changes to your home or auto coverage. For example, most aides have their own cars to drive your loved one around, but if an aide will be using your vehicle, you’ll need to add them to your policy.

Sell the idea. The person needing the care may claim they don’t need an aide. Tell them it’s to help the caregiver, or have a doctor, care manager or some other authoritative figure say that an aide is necessary. That’s a suggestion from the Aging Life Care Association. Emphasize that the help doesn’t have to be permanent, or call the aide a housekeeper, they suggest. That way, it’s not about the individual not being independent but to help the household.

Find the right person. Consider aide characteristics that might make an outsider more acceptable to the person needing care. Look for someone who shares some of the same hobbies as card games, for example.

Be on hand for the first few sessions. You want to observe them and make sure they’re taught any specific care needs that are unique to the individual being cared for. After that initial training, the family member can come in and out. Don’t be present for an entire shift because the person needing care may continue to rely on the caregiver and not turn to the home provider for help. I hope those heroes and heroines who so lovingly care for their loved ones at home will find this information helpful. (Adapted from Kiplinger’s Retirement Report) Next, you’ll learn about caregiver stress and tips for taking care of themselves.

ELDER WISDOM – Some people call it “multitasking.” I call it “doing something else while I try to remember what I was doing in the first place.”
