The Big Picture with Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

This weekend, we will be celebrating the Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord. We take time to reflect upon the journey made by the three wise men so long ago. Their journey required a good deal of faith and courage.

As we begin this New Year, we can view 2022 as another chapter in the journey of faith we call our lives. Faith and courage will also be needed on our part.

Isn't it interesting that God did not inspire just one wise man to make the journey but three? In our lives God doesn't call us to make the spiritual journey alone. The Lord gives us family, friends, the example and prayers of the saints, and our parish family to help us along the way.

Although we all experience loneliness at certain times in our lives, God doesn't want us to feel isolated as we make this pilgrimage through life. Even hermits are meant to experience the communion they have with other brothers and sisters in the Lord.

This is the beginning of a new year of Grace. The Lord in his loving, divine providence has allowed us to walk this part of the journey together. Like the three wise men, may we help each other along the way. If you notice that someone is struggling, see if you can be of some assistance. In our society it's often harder to receive the help of another. So gently and humbly offer your help.

The three wise men were not disappointed when they encountered the Christ child. So too we will not be disappointed if we journey this year seeking to draw closer to Jesus.

I'm sure we have all had our moments at the onset of a great undertaking thinking to ourselves, "Is this going to be worth all the sacrifice and pain?" I would imagine the three wise men were asking themselves that question before they began their quest.

Well, here we are at the start of a new year. No doubt sacrifice and pain will be a factor if it's really going to be a year of any value. But take heart. During this year the Lord will also bring into our lives much joy and peace.

As we begin this New Year, let us each make a commitment to pray each day. I remember passing by a church with a sign that read, "Seven days without prayer makes one weak." Yes, daily prayer will help us who are weak, to be strong.

Let us remember to pray for one another on this journey. May we all grow spiritually strong and wise.

God's Peace and Joy,
Fr. Bob

offering the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, the first Saturday of the month.

Bird's Eye View with Fr. Pellican

In the Gospel today we hear the beautiful story of the magi coming from afar in search of Jesus. These men, who were more likely wise advisors to kings than kings themselves, set out on a journey to a completely unknown land, bringing fine gifts for someone they had no proof actually existed. They were searching for something, something beyond all the wisdom of the East they had amassed during their lifetime. Though they may not have clearly understood it, they were in search of Divine wisdom. They journeyed to encounter the Divine Word, the perfect revelation of God himself. On this wondrous feast of the Epiphany, we are reminded by their searching that each one of us has a longing in our own hearts for something more, and this causes us in this life to be constantly searching. Some search to fill or numb this longing in unhealthy and even destructive ways. The magi remind us that ultimately what we all search for is something beyond this world. We search for God himself. And God made himself accessible to us through the incarnation.

The word 'epiphany' means 'to shine forth.' On this feast we recall how the star of Bethlehem shone forth and guided the magi to Jesus. We remember as well the words of St. John about Jesus' incarnation: "the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it" (Jn 1:5). Jesus is the light of grace, truth and hope who shines in the midst of this world. This brings to mind a line from the Christmas carol, Oh Holy Night, which goes like this: "The weary world rejoices, for yonder breaks a new and glorious morn." This glorious morning light about which we sing is none other than Christ, the light of the world (Jn 8:12). May the light of Christ shine in our hearts, in our families, and in our world to dispel all darkness, bringing renewal in the midst of weariness and hope amid trials. May we find in Jesus the truth, joy, and goodness for which we all long.

In Christ's peace,
Fr. David

Fr. Bob, Fr. David and Fr. John are also searching for Jesus, like the Magi!

DIVINE CHILD RELICS OF THE WEEK

Divine Child has 43 Relics in our Eucharistic Adoration Chapel and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton & St. John Neumann are two of them!

You may view a list of DC's relics located on the bookshelf in the Adoration Chapel.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton: Feast Day January 4 Patron of Catholic Schools, Widows and Seafarers

Elizabeth Ann Bayley was born in New York City on August 28, 1774 to a prominent Episcopal family, and lost her mother at the age of three. At the age of 19, Elizabeth married William Magee Seton, a wealthy businessman with whom she had five children. William died of tuberculosis in 1803, leaving Elizabeth a young widow. She entered the Catholic Church in 1805 and founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph in Emmitsburg, Maryland, the first community for religious women established in the United States. She also began St. Joseph's Academy.

Mother Seton, as she is often called, was canonized on Sunday, September 14, 1975 in St. Peter's Square by Pope Paul VI. She was the first citizen born in the United States to be given the title of "Saint."

setonshrine.org

St. John Neumann: Feast Day January 5 Patron Saint of Educators and Teachers

John Neumann was born in what is now the Czech Republic. After studying in Prague, he came to New York at 25 and was ordained a priest. He did missionary work in New York until he was 29, when he joined the Redemptorists and became its first member to profess vows in the United States. He continued missionary work in Maryland, Virginia and Ohio, where he became popular with the Germans.

At 41, as bishop of Philadelphia, he organized the parochial school system into a diocesan one, increasing the number of pupils almost twentyfold within a short time.

Gifted with outstanding organizing ability, he drew into the city many teaching communities of sisters and the Christian Brothers. During his brief assignment as vice provincial for the Redemptorists, he placed them in the forefront of the parochial movement.

Well-known for his holiness and learning, spiritual writing and preaching, on October 13, 1963, John Neumann became the first American bishop to be beatified. Canonized in 1977, he is buried in St. Peter the Apostle Church in Philadelphia.

FOOTBALL AND PRAYER: DCHS Alumnus Sr. Rita Clare Yoches '97, & Sr. Eliana Day shared a fun & inspirational evening presentation on football and prayer. The evening included meditation, discussion, prayer, praise & worship, and Adoration. Sr. Rita Claire shared her vocation story and how her life transformed from a professional women's football player to a Franciscan Sister TOR of Penance of the Sorrowful Mother. Students also had the opportunity to hear from members of different vocations! Each member shared their story and passed along advice on how to discern God's calling. Special guest speakers were parishioners Giovanni & Lauren Vitale.

Expecting a baby?

Start planning now for the most significant event of your child's life – receiving the Sacrament of Baptism.

You will be forever enriched by your child, yet free time and sleep are two things you go without (for a while anyways). Therefore, we encourage you to complete the required Baptism preparation class during your pregnancy. This class is an on-demand program from online FORMED platform.

To get a Baptism information packet and sign up for preparation class or select a Baptism date, call the Rectory Office or Jodi Ann, the parish Baptism coordinator, at 313-277-3110, ext. 222.

PRAY FOR THE TEACHERS, ADMINISTRATORS AND STUDENTS

Please keep the welfare of the teachers, administrators, and students in your thoughts and prayers as they take a much-needed break from their studies to celebrate the Season of Christmas with their families. They have endured a great deal during the school year. Please pray that this Christmas season brings them all the peace and love they need to rest and heal their spirit.

KNIGHTS SUPPORTING HOLY CROSS SERVICES

The Foley Knights together with the other Councils in our district collected, purchased, and wrapped hoodies, bath products and gift cards to donate to the residents at Holy Cross Services. Holy Cross Services is a human service agency whose mission is to bring hope, promote change, and help people live free, healthy, and productive lives. Holy Cross was founded in 1948 and touches the lives of approximately 1,500 people every day who are abused, neglected, traumatized, and/or who suffer from addiction and mental health issues across Michigan, plus over 6,000 homeless veterans, children and adults in Lansing, Michigan.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOUR FAMILIES FROM THE FOLEY KNIGHTS

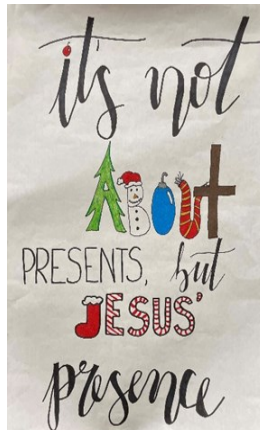

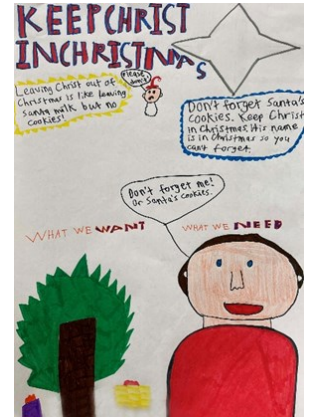

On behalf of the Foley Knights and our families, we wish all of you a safe and enjoyable Christmas Season. We pray that you and your families find ways to stay connected and experience all the joy the Christmas Season has to offer. Take time to be with your families to pray together, listen to each other, and love each other.

KEEP CHRIST IN CHRISTMAS

The Foley Knights sponsored a Keep Christ in Christmas poster contest in November. A special thank you goes out to Giovanni Vitale, the Foley Family Director, and Dawn Dwyer, Director of Religious Education at Divine Child Parish, and the Divine Child Elementary Teachers for their outstanding effort to promote this year's event. Their efforts brought in a record number of posters. Thank you to the 150+ Divine Child Elementary School and religious education students that took time to participate in this Faith Program. Below are the 7 finalists in the 11- to 14-year-old age division. Congratulations to Ali Gurriere, Finley Laser, Dominic Hammett, Raquel Wright, Juliana Sin, Arianna Sibi, and Nicholas Scirri. Below are winners of the 8- to 10-year-old division, Shiloh Roberts, and 11- to 14-year-old age division, Ali Gurriere.

Please let us know if you have a loved one who is serving in the military and we will acknowledge them in our weekly column. Please share the good news with us when one of the above soldiers returns home!

Please pray for this young man who is discerning God's call to the religious life.

Joseph Lennon, a DC Parishioner & 2017 St. Frances Cabrini HS graduate, is in formation for the priesthood at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit.

Anointing of the Sick

Every first Saturday of the month following the 4:30pm Mass. In emergency situations, when the office is closed, the emergency line attendant will take the call.

Baptisms

Arrangements must be made in advance and parents must attend a Baptism class prior to the Baptism.

The Church requires that at least one of the parents and one of the godparents/sponsors be practicing Catholics; that is, they attend Mass each weekend.

Marriages

One person of the couple must be an active, registered parishioner of Divine Child for at least 6 months. (Exceptions are made for DC alumni.)

The Church requires a minimum of 6 months for marriage preparation. Potential wedding date is not confirmed until couple meets with a Divine Child priest. The celebrant will be a Divine Child priest unless the couple has someone close to them who is a Catholic priest. Music for the liturgy must be coordinated with our Director of Music Ministry, Mr. Matthew Simpson.

Funerals

Arrangements are made in conjunction with the funeral home. Eulogies must be given at the funeral home or at the funeral luncheon; no eulogies at the funeral Mass, please. Memorial Masses are scheduled Monday-Friday only.

Quinceañeras

Arrangements must be made in advance at the Rectory Office. Please call Alicia Reyes at 313-277-3110.

Please Consider a Gift to Divine Child in your estate planning, to ensure the preservation of our parish and schools for future generations!
