

14 Eleanor Watts, '11, is marrying Michael Moody in October of 2021.

Brianna Wilson Kelly, '11, graduated from Hendrix College in Conway, AR in 2019. She was a Spanish Major and Biology Minor while playing four years of college volleyball there. Brianna's freshman year, her team went to the NCAA D3 Final Four and ended up 3rd in the nation. Now she is in grad school for Biotechnology at Johns Hopkins University and hoping to go to medical school.

Monica Dayao, '11, is pursuing a PhD degree in computational biology at the Computer Science Department at Carnegie Mellon University and just finished her second year.

Class of 2012

Jacob Cherek, '12, is studying Game and Interactive Media Design at UT Dallas. He interned this summer in Canada with Digital Extremes, an independent development studio.

Wesley Herbst, '12, is a freelance videographer in Houston after graduating from UT with a B.S. in Radio, Television, Film last spring

Class of 2013

Ryan Kioumeh, '13, finished his Bachelor's in Business from University of Georgia in 2021. He will finish his combined Master's in Accounting from the J.M.

Tull School of Accounting at University of Georgia in 2022. He has accepted an offer from KPMG as an Audit and Assurance Intern at their New York Office.

Sam Burton, '13, finished his degree in Mass Communications from Baylor and served as an Assistant Tennis Coach here at St. Mark's this spring.

Fadila Farag, '13, graduated from The American International University in London, Richmond in 2020, and is pursuing her Masters in Child & Adolescent Mental Health at UCL in London, (remotely from Abu Dhabi at the moment). After graduation, she is hoping to gain some clinical experience to help in her path to becoming a Clinical Psychologist.

Alexia Thomas, '13, earned her Bachelor's in Political Science from University of Houston, Honors College, served as President AKA chapter, served as Vice President of the Black Pre-Law Student Association, NAACP, and National Panhellenic Council. She is pursuing her JD from Howard Law School this fall, and served as a Harris County Civil Court Intern last summer.

David Stiles, '13, graduated from Trinity University in May with an English degree and will be attending Texas A&M Law School in the fall, where he received a generous scholarship. Congrats to David!

15 James Jackson, '13, graduated from The University of Texas at Austin, with a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science this spring. After interning last summer in iOS software engineering with Apple, he was invited back to serve as a full time software engineer after graduation. He is a member of the Apple Pay design team, and he is currently living in Palo Alto.

Sammi Snyder, '13, graduated on May 8th from Indiana University with a B.S. in Applied Health Science with a major in Human Development and Family Studies, with Psychology and Medical Sciences minors with Distinction. In August, she will be attending Texas State for the graduate program in Human Development & Family Studies--Child Life Specialist Program. There are only two programs of this kind in the state of Texas. She has been working at a preschool and finishing classroom observations before moving back to Texas in July! Congrats Sammi!

Class of 2014

Sydney Cherek, '14, is starting her senior year at the University of Oklahoma studying Management Information Systems. She was recently accepted into a masters program at OU.

16 Pierce Hollier, '14, is entering his senior year at Duke University. His major is neuroscience. He is studying this summer for the MCAT as he plans to apply to medical school. He intends to take a gap year once he graduates to work as an emergency medical technician in Austin. He continues to run his nonprofit, the American Medical Debt Relief Foundation, which buys delinquent medical debt for patients and forgives it. Over the last several years he has forgiven approximately $20 million in debt. In his spare time, Pierce helps to coordinate psychological counseling services for students at Duke University. He is active in his fraternity Chi Psi and enjoys traveling when he has any time off.

Sonia Kerrigan, '14, is completing an internship this summer with Children's of Alabama as the Corporate Communications and Marketing Intern. Sonia is spending her summer interviewing and writing press releases, newsletters, patient stories, and marketing collateral. Her favorite part has been getting to know the team and learning about media relations within a hospital. In the fall, Sonia will return to Samford University for her senior year, with plans to graduate in May 2022 with a BA in Journalism and Public Relations and two minors in Marketing and Spanish.

Sean Kerrigan, '14, will graduate from Texas A&M next May where he is majoring in Visualization and Animation. Sean is spending the summer working with his professor on a motion capture project testing out new technology and is also working on an independent animated short film with about 30 other students.

Gregory Dayao, '14, completed his 3rd year in pursuing a mechanical engineering degree at The University of Edinburgh. He is currently working as a consultant at TTP plc, an independent company based in Cambridge, England, that invents and develops new products and technologies. He has two more years of university before achieving his Masters, and he hopes to pursue a career in renewable energy.

Sam Shapiro, '14, worked for a real estate development firm in Baton Rouge and is a student at the LSU Honors College and also been on the Dean's List while earning a double major in finance and entrepreneurship. He has begun working as an analyst at Fidelis Infrastructure, LP in January 2021 and is working on renewable energy, renewable natural gas and recycled water infrastructure projects.

Class of 2015

Joe Shapiro, '15, is attending LSU earning his degree in finance on full scholarship. Prior to the pandemic, he worked on campus for the co-chair of economics at LSU and has been on the Dean's List for each semester since starting. He has been working as a financial analyst for Fidelis Infrastructure, LP since January 2021 focused on renewable energy investments, carbon management and project finance.

17 Ari Masters, '15, is transferring to George Mason University in their Honors English program this fall.

William Warren, '15, is attending Lonestar College getting his Associates degree in applied sciences and ASE certifications to be a mechanic. He is also busy coaching 4-13 year olds gymnastics at EnRich.

Class of 2016

Riley Harrison, '16, completed her freshman year at Auburn University. She is currently a student in the college of architecture, design and construction. She is a member of ADPi sorority and swims on an Auburn Masters Team.

Joseph Stiles, '16, is a sophomore at Texas A&M where he is in the Mays Business School and is a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity. He graduated from Strake Jesuit in 2020 where he made the UIL District 23 all district soccer team.

Madeline Bollinger, '16, was awarded a Southwestern Merit Scholarship, was Dean's List (all A's) for both semesters last year, and was nominated and appointed to the Southwestern University Honor Council.

Lani McHenry, '16, is currently a sophomore at NYU, majoring in Film at the Tisch School of Arts. Her recent film, "A Walk Along the Stars" was featured on Frame of Mind (KERA), and SXSW 2020. She has received numerous first place prizes in film festivals.

Class of 2017

18 Henry Miller, '17, (pictured with Catherine Miller, '21), graduated from St. John's School, where he was one of only two seniors who won the Athletic Achievement Award for participating in three sports both junior and senior years. He is headed to Occidental College in Los Angeles in the fall, where he will run Cross Country and Track.

Lauren Fulghum, '17, was a National Merit Finalist and will be attending the Beyond Boundaries Program at Washington University in St. Louis this fall. This program allows students to explore broad topics from multiple disciplinary perspectives.

19 Justin Kioumeh, '17, graduated from Kinkaid this spring and will be attending TCU in the fall. He spent the summer as a counselor at Camp Longhorn.

Class of 2018

20 Joel Johnson, '18, attends St. Thomas Catholic High School, and is very involved in theater program, never missing a performance. He also recently earned the rank of Eagle Scout with Troop 211.

Ava Phillips, '18, attends St. Agnes Academy, and is active in mock trial, debate, in addition to her creative writing pursuits.

Class of 2019

21 Kerrigan Gaither, '19, found Allison Artlip, '20, at Interlochen's Summer Camp this June. Both girls are attending Kinder High School for the Performing and Visual Arts. At Interlochen Summer Camp, Kerrigan is focusing on visual arts, and Allison is focusing on voice. Interlochen Summer Camp is held in Michigan and provides students the opportunity to experience all the fun of summer camp, while practicing, performing, and making art.

Catherine Jackson, '19, was recently elected to be the 2021-2022 State President for the Children of the American Revolution.

Taylor Kinahan, '19, will be a rising junior at St. Agnes. She has played volleyball, and lacrosse, and was invited to be a member of the National Society of High School Scholars (NSHSS) for academic achievement. She will take Honors Spanish III in the fall which has loved ever since 7th grade Spanish class at STMES! She has worked as a lifeguard for the City of West University and is looking forward to attending college in two years. She is setting her sights on an SEC school with a focus in business.

Class of 2020

Charlie Brisch, '20, has the best summer job in the world! He's working at Three Dog Bakery in Rice Village, making dog treats and petting all the adorable dogs and puppies who come in every day. Bring your pups by the store for a visit!

Sophia Shapiro, '20, finished her first year at Episcopal High School, swam for the Knights swim team, and started an online jewelry business during the pandemic with a target launch date of September 2021.

22 Ethan Bradford, Dominic Green and Will Gillette ('20) played JV Golf at Strake Jesuit this past year. The JV team had a strong season and at the Battleground tournament (pictured), the Strake Jesuit team earned 1st place by 22 strokes. Individually, Will Gillette placed 1st, Dominic Green placed 3rd and Ethan Bradford placed 5th. Way to go, Lions!

23 Andy Fuselier, '19, Mason Chiu, '20, David Chiu, '20, and Miles Dominey, '20, have had a great run playing on the West U Little League Seniors All Star team this spring. They won sectionals, and competed in the state tournament together the first week in July, where they became the State Champions!