

Class Notes

ST. MARK'S LIONS MAKING OUR MARK

Want to share an update with St. Mark's?

Send your updates to Director of Development, Lou Ellen Stansell at lstansell@stmes.org to be featured in a future issue of Making Our Mark.

Class of 1994

1 Katy Jewett-Malone, '94, has had a long tenured career in local and national politics and is currently a democratic candidate for Texas State Senate District 17. Katy's passion for ensuring that all Texans are covered by health insurance is a key part of her platform.

2 Jessica Roberts, '94, is preparing to welcome her second child this August with her husband, Dave Fagundes. Jessica is the Director of the Health Law & Policy Institute and the Leonard Childs Professor in Law at The University of Houston Law Center. Her daughter, Lucy Fagundes, '32, is excited to welcome her baby brother soon!

Class of 1995

Zac Bodner, '95, is a real estate photographer based in Houston. He also does photo/video for documentaries, weddings, events, businesses, and animal shelters. Additionally, Zac writes articles and takes pictures for the Jewish Herald-Voice, one of the oldest newspapers in Houston. Zac is always seeking new clients and projects, you can check out his work at zacbodner.com and at homesnappers.com

Class of 1996

3 Jael Topek, '96, is a live action and animation director, writer, designer, camera person, and editor living in Seattle, WA. His clients include Code.org, Valve, Microsoft, AT&T, Shutterstock, and many more!

Class of 1998

4 Maria DeFelice, '98, is the Director of Brand Partnerships at The Information, a leading news source for technology news in San Francisco. Maria has worked for The Information for the past six years, and previously was the Director of Public Relations for a music promotion company.

Class of 1999

Sharna (Cox) Caceres, '99, is a Texas attorney, specializing in fertility law and adoption. She provides counsel on strategies for building families and helps clients navigate the required legal processes. Sharna's firm is based in San Antonio, Texas.

DC MacLea, '99, is serving as the Player Development Performance Specialist for the St. Louis Cardinals in their Minor League program. DC has spent the past 15 years working in the field of athletic training and sports administration at the professional, collegiate, and pediatric level.

Class of 2000

Victoria (Rosenbloom) Hanna, '00, attended Bellaire High School after St. Mark's. She is married with two "fur babies" and works as a real estate agent in the Woodlands.

Class of 2002

Nikki McKinnon, '02, started a new job as an IT Business Analyst at Transportation Insight in Hickory, NC this June.

Troy McKinnon, '02, began a new role at EControls in San Antonio in January. Troy is serving as the Director of IoT (internet of things) Technology.

Class of 2004

Paul Browne, '04, is a digital marketing content specialist in Houston. He has recently reconnected with St. Mark's and is helping our school create a digital marketing plan to boost enrollment for the coming year!

5 Stephan Hatteberg, '04, is the owner of CalisthenicsKid, a fitness community in Houston that blends calisthenics and yoga to provide strength.

Class of 2005

Zach Shelton, '05, is the Digital Development Manager with the Rockets. Zach has been with the Rockets for nearly 8 years.

Class of 2006

Matt Chernosky, '06, is marrying Kim Guyton this October. Matt is a CPA and works as an Audit Manager for Deloitte in Houston.

Indya Flanagan, '06, began a new position as an Account Development Representative at MongoDB in Austin, Texas this March. MongoDB is a database provider with offices all over the world.

6 Becca Wright, '06, is currently working as a freelance photographer as well as the in-house photographer for J. Landa Jewelry, where she also manages marketing and social media.

Class of 2007

7 Maddie Bricker, '07, graduated from medical school at the Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine last year. Maddie is currently a Pediatric Resident at UT Houston McGovern, and is getting married in October of 2021 to Dru Carroll.

8 Laura Byrd, '07, is earning her JD at Emory Law School in Atlanta. This summer, Laura is working as a summer associate at Vinson & Elkins.

Morgan (Gerson) Lewman, '07, welcomed twin girls named June and Casey this spring with her husband, Joseph. Morgan serves as a 2s Teacher at Beth Yeshurun Day School.

Class of 2008

9 Bradley Barrow, '08, works as a Junior Beekeeper at Two Hives Honey in Austin, TX. Two Hives Honey is a socially conscious organization that aims to educate the community, support local businesses, and offer incredible honey!

Class of 2009

10 Zach Boihem, '09, is the Accounting Administrative Coordinator at Camp for All. Camp for All is located in Burton, Texas, and provides a barrier-free camp experience for campers of all abilities. Our middle school students often visit Camp for All as a field trip!

11 Nasim Dimassi, '09, started a new role as a Senior Project Engineer for Cumby Group, LLC in Austin. Cumby Group develops, builds, sells and leases multi-family and commercial real estate projects in Texas.

12 Sarah Lach, '09, is pursuing a Doctor of Philosophy in Microbiology and Molecular Genetics from The University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston.

Class of 2010

Callie Bike, '10, returned to St. Mark's and is loving her role as our 5th Grade Language Arts teacher. Callie shared, "As a student, I spent 9 years of my education at St. Mark's and can confidently say that the community has shaped me to be the person and teacher I am today. When trying to find a teaching job in Houston, I knew it was time to return home. There's truly not a better community than St. Mark's!"

Christopher Janssen, '10, will start at Texas A&M College of Medicine in 2021. He completed his Master in Public Health in Environmental Health as part of the MD Plus program. The MD Plus Program is a five-year, dual-degree program for students interested in enhancing their medical career options.

Class of 2011

13 Ashley Chainani, '11, has been awarded the prestigious title of Fulbright Scholar. In September, she will be serving as an English teaching assistant and exploring how Spain's educational system allows for intergenerational socioeconomic mobility. Ashley will live in Logroño, Spain to complete her research for the next year. After her Fulbright experience, she plans to pursue a JD/MBA with a goal of getting into public policy work.

Ben Neukomm, '11, began a new position as a Financial Analyst at Oceaneering this June. Oceaneering is an organization that helps to improve performance in oilfield, aerospace, entertainment, material handling, defense, renewable energy, and research applications.

Maddie Sheffer, '11, graduated from USC with her Masters in Marriage and Family therapy and began her career with Beverly Hills Therapy Group.

