Spartan Spotlight

Student of the Year

Lauren Elizabeth Michelli is a senior at East Ascension High. She has two younger brothers. During her free time, she loves to read and play music. Lauren loves to serve others. She is very active in her church, where she serves as a middle school youth group leader.

Lauren described her reaction of being announced Student of the Year as "complete and utter disbelief".

She continued saying, "There were so many worthy and accomplished candidates, I am completely honored and humbled to have been chosen for the award."

If she had to give advice to those who aspire to be Student of the Year, she said, "Be genuine. People will always respect you more if you stay true to yourself."

Lastly, Lauren gave us a little insight on what decade she would find fun to live in. She said, "If I could live in any decade, it would totally be the 80's. Despite the crazy clothes and hair, the music was the absolute best."

Congratulation to the nominees for Students of the Year: Ryan Gremillon, Kendal Alverez-Simmons, Isabella Trinka, Amber Johnson, Aleigh Solar, Reagan Herrington, Lauren Michelli, Jacelyn Wheat, Casey Butler, Maggie Britton, Eric Diaz

Teacher of the Month

Congratulations, Ms. Roussel! The Director of the Pride of EA Spartan Band and this month's Teacher of the Month!

For 16 years, Ms. Roussel has spent countless hours working with our band students to build and create the award winning marching, symphonic, and jazz bands that we are so proud to have here at EA!

Thank You, Ms. Roussel for everything you do everyday, all year for our Spartans!

Career Coaches Corner

Congratulations to these students selected to show their artwork at the Kiwanis Pancake Festival

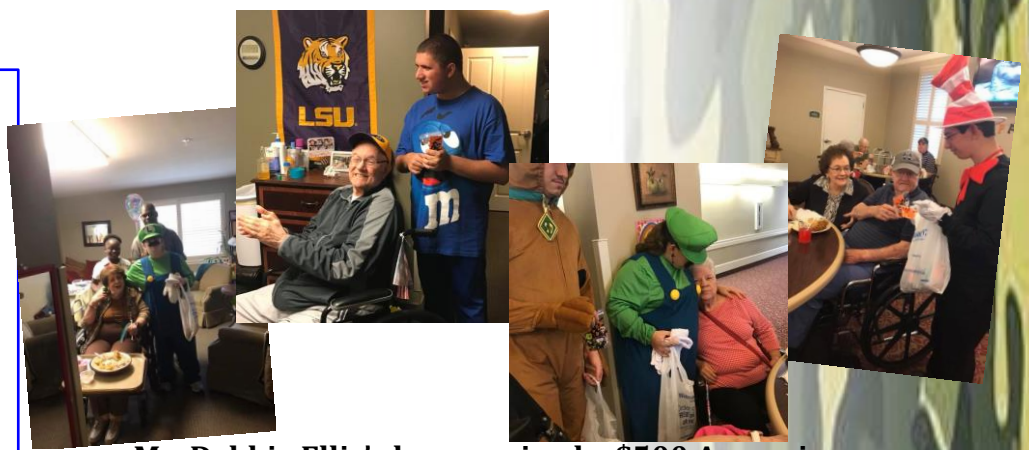

Alisia Lacour's "Cheeta Cub"

Zoe Soulier 's "Night Wave" and "Intelligent Dimension"

Bente Wilkin's "Confusion Intwines"

Gabrielle Martinez 's "Somber Seeds"

Matthew Giblin's "Through the Loop"

Ms. Debbie Ellis' class received a $500 Ascension Fund grant to make 180 pumpkin sachet aroma bead ornaments for local nursing homes. Students dressed up in Halloween costumes and delivered the ornaments to the residents. They loved their pumpkins!

We Are Sparta!

Out of the Darkness Walk was held Saturday, October 21, 2017 at Lamar Dixon. The Walk was to honor those whose lives were lost to suicide and raise awareness for suicide prevention. Some of the freshmen's Senior Mentors attended and encouraged freshmen to attend as well. It was a great turnout! Many Spartans were ready to help their community and give awareness about suicide.

There's No Place Like EA!

Breakfast & Benjamins was a breakfast held to celebrate AP students who received credit from the AP test. The students who pass the AP test were presented with their $100 and an applause from their fellow classmates. There also was a chance for students who didn't pass the AP test to win $100. At the end of the ceremony, all AP students were given donuts and time to celebrate with friends. It served as a big encouragement for student to take AP courses and try their hardest to earn the credit.

Good luck to the Volleyball team as they go into the Volleyball Playoffs!

Come out Saturday, November 4 to the gym and show some SPARTAN spirit!!

The Pride of EA and Color Guard earned Superior ratings and the Best in Class Sweepstakes Award. Congratulations to all these young men and women who did their best to represent EA in a great light this weekend.
