New in the library:

It starts with a plane crash. There are survivors: A teenage girl and her little brother. They are running from something. But what? Then the men arrive. They are hunting the girl and boy. And - and that's all we can tell you ..

It looks like Eoin Madden's busiest term ever! He's Castlerock College's star player and he's been called up for Ireland in the Under 16 Four Nations! When his oldest and best ghostly friend calls for help, can Eoin and his band of heroes solve their deadliest mystery yet?

Cinder, a gifted mechanic in New Beijing, is also a cyborg. But when her life becomes entwined with the handsome Prince Kai's she finds herself at the centre of a violent struggle between the desires of an evil queen - and a dangerous temptation.

VIII is the story of Hal: a young, handsome, gifted warrior, who believes he has been chosen to lead his people. But he is plagued by the ghosts of his family's violent past and once he rises to power he turns to murder and rapacious cruelty. He is Henry VIII.

Talking to:

Mrs Jeffs

Q) What book are you reading now? Are you enjoying it?

I'm reading 'Paradise Fields' by Katie Fforde, it's a relatable story with believable female characters, problems to be solved and little mysteries along the way. A lovely, quick and light read.

Q) Who was your favourite childhood author?

JK Rowling is my favourite children's author, I felt like I was growing up with Harry Potter!

Q) What is the one title you think everyone should read and why?

'The Tattooist of Aushwitz' by Heather Morris. I'm fascinated by the historical side of this novel and humbled by how far we have come and how much we still have to learn.

Q) What advice do you have for students?

Find a book that you will enjoy; don't struggle on with a book you don't like.
