Identify student eligibility and guidelines to disburse emergency aid to students.	It is the goal of CMN to distribute the CRRSAA student grants in an equitable manner, while prioritizing students with the greatest need. The College recognizes our students have been impacted by the coronavirus pandemic and also faced financial challenges.

TO be eligible, students must meet the following Criteria:	Be a U.S. citizen or national, permanent resident, or other eligible noncitizen. Must use the CRRSAA student grant to cover expenses from any component of the student's cost of attendance and/or emergency costs that arise due to the coronavirus, such as tuition, food, housing, health care (including mental health care), or childcare incurred after December 27, 2020. Be enrolled in at least one credit hour for fall 21 Semester.
Identify process to announce emergency aid to students including instructions on eligibility and how to apply.	The information was posted on CMN's website and all students were emailed the information stating the opportunity for the emergency cares act. The information provided to students stated they did not need to apply. All students registered for credits are eligible and will be identified by CMN. Any questions can be directed to CMN's Financial Aid Manager, Austin Retzlaff, at 715-799-6226, 3237, or by email at aretzlaff@menominee.edu.
