The Big Picture with Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

This coming Saturday, January 22, marks the 49th anniversary of Roe vs. Wade that legalized abortion. Since that time, there have been over 62 million abortions that have taken place in our country. How could we have allowed this to happen?

St. Paul tells us in his letter to the Romans 12:2 "Do not model yourselves on the behavior of the world around you, but let your behavior change, modeled by your new mind. This is the only way to discover the will of God and know what is good, what it is that God wants, what is the perfect thing to do." St. Paul knows that it is by putting on the mind of Christ that we can make decisions that are truly wise. Prayer, sacred scripture, and two thousand years of Church teachings can help us put on the mind of Christ.

How can there be a debate as to whether a child in the womb is truly a human being? Psalm 139:13,14 answers that question very clearly. "It was you who created my inmost self and put me together in my mother's womb; for all these mysteries I thank you: for the wonder of myself, for the wonders of your work."

How could we have allowed this to happen? How have we allowed our values to be formed? If our values are not shaped by scripture and Church teachings, we will be way off course. Someone may be able to speak passionately and convincingly but still not be speaking with the mind of Christ.

We are all called to embrace the Gospel of Life. There are many chapters to the Gospel of Life. To be true to this Gospel, we need to be concerned for the unborn child and the child's mother. We need to be concerned about the well-being of all children. Caring for the poor and neglected in society is our responsibility and privilege. The list of life issues is enormous, spanning from conception to natural death.

Today, let us stop and pray for an end to abortion. Let us also remember in our prayers the millions of women who have had abortions. Many do not want to face the truth of what they have done. Many are wracked with a sense of guilt and hopelessness. They feel they have committed an unforgivable sin. The truth is that every person who is sorry can experience God's forgiveness and healing. For Catholics, the sacrament of Reconciliation plays a very important part in bringing the healing forgiveness of Christ into their lives at this time of brokenness.

On this day, may we appreciate anew the truth that every human being has infinite value.

Please join us as we come together in prayer on Thursday, January 20th at 7PM in the church for the Foley Knights or Knights of Columbus Prayer Service for Life.

God's Peace and Joy,
Fr. Bob

Roe vs Wade Luminaries

This weekend, the Divine Child Right to Life Committee will be passing out luminaries to be lit, January 21st, the evening prior to the anniversary of Roe v. Wade.

We invite all parishioners to light these candles and pray for an end to abortion. This year we will pray in a particular way for the US Supreme Court to overturn Roe v. Wade and give states the right to protect families. Thank you for joining us in this battle for life. We will also hand out the candles at the pro-life prayer service, January 20, 7 PM sponsored by the Bishop Foley Council, Knights of Columbus.

Bird's Eye View with Fr. Pellican

There are many things about my time in seminary that I remember fondly. But it was a rather 'hidden' life. People who have not taken classes at seminary or known someone in seminary, are probably unfamiliar with the ins and outs of seminary life. One of those less known aspects of being a seminarian is the progression through two ministries and two levels of orders. As seminarians we were first instituted to the ministry of Lector and then the ministry Acolyte before being ordained as deacons and finally priests. Most of us are familiar with Deacons and Priests, but what are these ministries of Lector and Acolyte? When we were instituted Lectors we began to read the readings at seminary liturgies, and entered a time particularly focused on being immersed in the Scriptures, focusing both on understanding them more profoundly and proclaiming them more effectively when reading. Then we became Acolytes, and focused on growing in love for the Eucharist as well as serving Mass. If you're thinking that these ministries sound like the Readers and Altar Servers we have at each Mass here, you would be correct! But being instituted into these ministries gives seminarians particular areas of focus for different years.

Anyone becoming a permanent deacon goes through these same steps up to the diaconate. My thoughts go to these ministries now because one of our parishioners and readers, Cesar Cruz, is being instituted an Acolyte this Sunday, January 16. Cesar is discerning, studying and being formed to become a permanent deacon in the Archdiocese of Detroit. It is beautiful to see the openness he had to hear the Lord calling him in this way, and the generosity of heart to follow. As an Acolyte, Cesar will be serving at Masses at DC as an immediate assistant to the priest at the altar. I look forward to ministering with Cesar, and opportunities he will have in the future to share with our community a little about his journey following Christ into the diaconal formation program. For now, let us keep Cesar and his family in our prayers!

In Christ,
Fr. David

DIVINE CHILD RELIC OF THE WEEK

St. Agnes
Feast Day January 21
Patron of young girls,
chastity, rape survivors

Divine Child has 43 Relics in our Eucharistic Adoration Chapel and St. Agnes is one of them!
You may view a list of DC's relics located on the bookshelf in the Adoration Chapel.

Almost nothing is known of this saint except that she was very young—12 or 13—when she was martyred in the last half of the third century. Various modes of death have been suggested—beheading, burning, strangling.

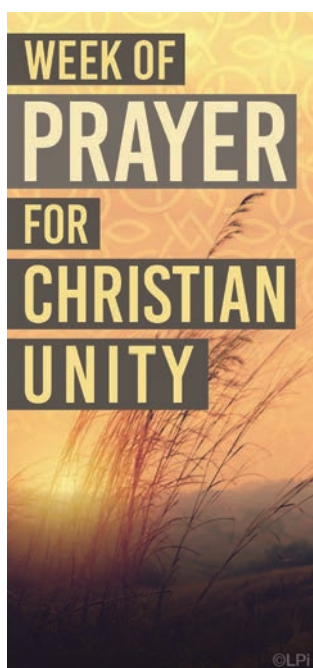

Legend has it that Agnes was a beautiful girl whom many young men wanted to marry. Among those she refused, one reported her to the authorities for being a Christian. She was arrested and confined to a house of prostitution. The legend continues that a man who looked upon her lustfully lost his sight and had it restored by her prayer. Agnes was condemned, executed, and buried near Rome in a catacomb that eventually was named after her. The daughter of Constantine built a basilica in her honor.

St. Vincent de Paul / Capuchin Soup Kitchen Annual "Chili Cha Cha" Fundraiser

Due to the current COVID surge in our area, we will not have an "in-person" Chili Dinner this year, which raises funds for Divine Child/Sacred Heart St. Vincent de Paul and the Capuchin Soup Kitchen in Detroit. Both charities are in need of support, especially in these winter months, as there is great need in our communities. We will be repeating our Special Collection that was so successful last year in raising needed funds, and add a Take-Out Chili option too!

The "Giving Tree" will be available in the Gathering Space with envelopes on January 29/30, for donations that will be split evenly between SVDP and the Capuchin Soup Kitchen. Please take an envelope and return it in the collection basket, or put it in the mail.

There will also be the opportunity to order cold Chili for "Take-Out" (made by the Capuchin Soup Kitchen chef) by filling out the order form on the right, and putting in the collection basket, labeled "Chili Take-Out" by January 23. Chili can be picked up on January 29/30 at the Sacred Heart parish hall located behind the church after Masses (Saturday 4:30pm, Sunday 9:30am and 11am). Freewill offering will be accepted for chili payment.

Please support these two organizations that provide so much help to our local Neighbors-in-Need! We thank you ahead of time for your generosity!!

Pro-Life Meditations on the Mysteries of the Rosary

The Rosary is a devotion strongly embraced by the pro-life movement. This is so for good reasons, because in the Hail Mary we praise a mother, and we worship the fruit of her womb. Our salvation began because a mother said yes to the life within her! In the Rosary we also say, "Pray for US sinners." We don't point the finger at others, but rather at ourselves. We know that sin that is in the world, but we start by repenting of the sin within us. That is the best way to rebuild the Culture of Life.

The Joyful Mysteries

The Annunciation:

Mary is troubled by the angel's greeting, yet rejoices to do God's will. Let us pray that those who are troubled by their pregnancy may have the grace to trust in God's will.

The Visitation:

John the Baptist leapt for joy in his mother's womb. We pray that people may realize that abortion is not about children who "might" come into the world, but is about children who are already in the world, living and growing in the womb, and are scheduled to be killed.

The Nativity:

God Himself was born as a child. The greatness of a person does not depend on size, for the newborn King is very small. Let us pray for an end to prejudice against the tiny babies threatened by abortion.

The Presentation:

The child is presented in the Temple because the Child belongs to God. Children are not the property of their parents, nor of the government. They - and we - belong to God Himself.

The Finding of Jesus in the Temple:

The Boy was filled with wisdom, because He is God. Let us pray that all people may see the wisdom of His teachings about the dignity of life, and may understand that this teaching is not an opinion, but the truth.

Sorrowful Mysteries

The Agony in the Garden

Let us pray for mothers and fathers who are in agony because they are tempted to abort a child. May they be given the good news that there are alternatives, and may they make use of the help that is available.

The Scourging

As Christ's flesh was torn by the instruments of those who scourged Him, so the bodies of babies in the womb are torn by the instruments of the abortionists. Let us pray that abortionists may repent of these acts of child-killing.

The Crowning With Thorns

Jesus suffered the pain of thorns in His head, and did so silently. We pray for the mothers and fathers of aborted children. So many of them suffer deep grief and regret over a choice they can never reverse. So many suffer in silence, because others tell them it's no big deal.

The Carrying of the Cross

Jesus was not condemned by the power of wicked people. He was condemned because of the silence of good people. Silence always helps the oppressor, never the victim. Let us pray that we may never be silent about abortion, but rather will clearly speak up to save babies from death.

The Crucifixion

As we ponder the death of Christ, let us remember the many women who have died from so-called "safe, legal" abortions. Let us ask forgiveness and mercy for them. May their memory save other women from making this tragic mistake.

Glorious Mysteries

The Resurrection

Christ is Risen! By his Resurrection, He has destroyed the power of death, and therefore the power of abortion. The outcome of the battle for Life has already been decided: Life is victorious! Let us pray that all pro-lifers will spread this victory to every segment of our society.

The Ascension

By ascending to the Father's throne, Christ takes our human nature, given to us in the womb, to the heights of heaven. He shows us that human beings are made to be raised to heaven, not thrown in the garbage. Let us pray that the world may learn this truth and reject abortion.

The Descent of the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Advocate: He pleads our cause, for we cannot save ourselves. We pray that He will make us advocates for the babies, who cannot speak or write or vote or protest or even pray.

The Assumption

The Blessed Virgin Mary was taken body and soul into heaven because she is the Mother of God. Mother and child are united. The Assumption reminds us that they belong together. We pray that society will see that it cannot love women while killing their children, and cannot save children without helping their mothers. We pray that people will be touched by the pro-life question, "Why can't we love them both?"

The Coronation

Mary is the Queen of the Universe. The Church teaches that she is the greatest creature, second only to God Himself. The Church defends the dignity of women. We pray that people will understand that to be pro-life means to be pro-woman, and that to be pro-woman demands that we be pro-life.

Luminous Mysteries

On October 16, 2002, Pope St. John Paul II recommended to the Christian world the addition of a new set of Mysteries to the Rosary. Following are pro-life meditations on these mysteries.

Christ is Baptized in the Jordan

When Jesus was baptized, the Father's voice is heard: "This is my beloved Son." All are called to become adopted sons and daughters of God through baptism. We pray that children in the womb may be protected, so that they may be born and welcomed into the Christian community by baptism.

Christ is made known at the Wedding of Cana

Jesus revealed His glory by the miracle at Cana. The new couple was blessed not only with wine, but with faith in Christ. Let us pray for strong marriages, rooted in the Lord, and open to the gift of new life.

Christ proclaims the Kingdom and Calls All to Conversion

"Repent and believe the Good News." Let us pray that these first words of Jesus' public ministry may be heard by all who have committed abortion. May they know that the Lord calls them to conversion, and may they experience life-giving repentance.

The Transfiguration

Christ is transformed on the mountain, and the disciples see His glory. May the eyes of all people be transformed, that they may see each and every human life as a reflection of the glory of God Himself.

Jesus gives us the Eucharist

"This is My Body, given up for you." The Eucharist teaches us how to live and how to love. Let us pray that parents who sacrifice the babies for the sake of themselves may learn instead to put themselves aside for the sake of their babies.

NOVENA FOR LIFE: A Nine Day Journey with Three American Saints

Join the Foley Knights in praying a Novena for Life. It is not too late to join in. The Novena started on Wednesday, January 12 and will finish on Thursday, January 20. Now more than ever we have witnessed how important life is and that every life is precious. Saints Elizabeth Seton, John Neumann, and Frances Cabrini are powerful witnesses to the Gospel of life, each in their own time. This novena suggests three days of prayer to each of these Saints for the promotion of Life in our country and our Church today.

COMMUNITY NEWS

WHAT ARE COURAGE AND ENCOURAGE?

Courage provides confidential, welcoming, and informative support for men and women with same-sex attraction.

EnCourage is a spiritual support group within Courage dedicated to the spiritual needs of parents, siblings, children, and other relatives and friends of persons who experience same-sex attraction. Standing by the true teachings of the Roman Catholic Church, EnCourage members support one another and their loved ones through discussion, prayer, and fellowship.

WHAT DO COURAGE AND ENCOURAGE BELIEVE?

Courage and EnCourage believe that persons with same-sex attraction can follow Jesus Christ according to Roman Catholic spiritual and moral teaching. A person's dignity does not depend on his or her sexual attraction, but upon his or her relationship to Jesus Christ. Persons with same-sex attraction can develop an assured, grace-led understanding of themselves while growing into their true identities as mature men and women.

HOW DOES ENCOURAGE WORK?

EnCourage members support one another and their loved ones through discussion, prayer, fellowship, and sacrifice. EnCourage offers faithful witness to Catholic teaching on sexual morality while meeting the needs of its members with charity and compassion.

GOALS OF ENCOURAGE

- Help members to grow spiritually through developing a vital relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ as authentically taught in our Roman Catholic Tradition.
- Enable members to gain a deeper understanding of the needs and struggles experienced by men and women who experience same-sex attraction.
- Help members establish and maintain a healthy and wholesome relationship with the loved one who experiences same-sex attraction.
- Assist other parents and families not to reject, but to reach out with compassion and truth to their loved one experiencing same-sex feelings and behaviors.
- Witness to our loved one by our own lives that a happy, wholesome life is to be found in union with Jesus Christ and with His body, the Church.

HOW DO WE FIND OUT MORE ABOUT ENCOURAGE MEETINGS?

To learn more about the EnCourage meeting, please call (313) 237-5900 or email encourage@aod.org. All inquiries are strictly confidential.

The Sanctuary Course for Catholics on FORMED

In today's Daily Reflection, Dr. Tim Gray spoke about the struggles of anxiety and depression in relation to one's walk with Christ. After receiving some personal feedback about this reflection, Dr. Tim Gray wanted to provide a clarifying response to what was said. Mental health is a very serious, complex, and sensitive topic that the Augustine Institute takes very seriously. We are proud to have The Sanctuary Course for Catholics on FORMED, which is an 8-part series on the intersection of faith and mental health available in both English and Spanish, and highly recommend it for anyone interested in the topic.

Dr. Gray has been honored to welcome Clinical Psychologist, Dr. Lillian Henricks, to the Augustine Institute Show to discuss this very topic and the impact of Covid-19 on mental health. Dr. Gray has also welcomed Eric Windeler, Founder and Executive Director of Jack.org, an organization which mobilizes young people to revolutionize mental health, to the Augustine Institute Show to discuss mental health. Formed is free for Divine Child parishioners. Visit FORMED.ORG

Let no one ever come to you without leaving better and happier. Be the living expression of God's kindness: kindness in your face, kindness in your eyes, kindness in your smile.

Right to Life - LIFESPAN Motor City Caravan for Life is January 22

The 2nd Annual Motor City Caravan for Life takes place next Saturday, January 22 to commemorate the 49th anniversary of Roe v. Wade on the same day as the National March for Life in Washington. This car caravan begins in Royal Oak, proceeds on Woodward Ave. and Gratiot Ave. and ends in Detroit. Our theme is "Love Life" and this allows all ages to promote life from the warmth of their own cars! Many people and churches also put out LIFESPAN Luminaries overnight on January 21 to commemorate the somber anniversary. Please call 734-422-6230 or visit www.milifespan.org for more details on these awesome events!
