SWIM LESSONS

Swim lessons are provided as part of the GCDS Summer Camp experience for campers ages 4-13. Lessons are an additional option for campers age 3 in our Stay & Swim program. Lessons are provided on-site at the Old Church Road campus.

Campers aged 3-7 are provided with swim lessons that meet their needs from Sportsplex of Stamford instructors.

- Lessons are provided twice a week in a small group format (4:1)
- All campers are evaluated to determine their swim readiness.
- During lessons, students are grouped by ability and invited into the pool for 1 on 1 instruction.

Campers Aged 8 - 13 experience an expanded swim program, focused on stroke progression through the implementation of skill work, drills, and games.

- Lessons are created and led by our WSI certified Waterfront Director
- 1 on 1, small group, and large group instruction are utilized
- Activities are age-appropriate and tailored to each camper's needs and abilities
- An element of fun is incorporated into the lessons to ensure all campers enjoy their time in the pool

Pandemic Health & Safety Protocols. GCDS will operate our summer camp programs in compliance with prevailing health and safety guidance for camp programs recommended by applicable authorities, including, but not limited to wearing face masks. Specific practices will be communicated to all enrolled families prior to camp opening and are subject to change. GCDS Summer Camp will require COVID-19 vaccination for all age-eligible campers, subject to specific medical exemptions.
