FINDING A GOOD FIT

- Academic Fit
 - Determined by the college
 - Do your scores and grades fit the college's academic profile?
 - Does the college offer your major? Are there enough choices if you are undecided?
- Social Fit
 - Determined by the student
 - Does the college offer extracurricular experiences that interest you?
 - Does the social culture at the school fit your lifestyle?
- Financial Fit
 - Determined by the family
 - Is the college affordable, even without loans, grants or scholarships?
 - Is the college a good value? Is the Return on Investment (ROI) worth it?

BUILDING A BALANCED LIST

- Probable, Target, Reach
 - Probable: GPA & test scores are above the average admitted students;
 likely acceptance
 - Target: GPA & test scores are a close match to the average admitted student; 50/50 chance of acceptance
 - Reach: GPA & test scores are below the average admitted students
- Apply to an average of 8-10 colleges
 - 2-3 in probable
 - 3-4 in target
 - 2-3 in reach
