

Each student will be literate and numerate and able to integrate and apply knowledge and skills acquired across core academic disciplines.

Accordingly, each student will:

1. Achieve at individually and appropriately challenging levels of complexity in the following disciplines:
 - 1.1 English Language Arts (reading, writing, speaking, listening)
 - 1.2 Math
 - 1.3 Sciences
 - 1.4 Social Studies (history, civics, economics, financial literacy)
 - 1.5 Arts
 - 1.6 Health, Wellness and Physical Fitness
 - 1.7 CTE
 - 1.8 World Languages
2. Be technologically fluent, able to use tools critically, ethically, and safely.