ADMINISTRATIVE BUSINESS

A. Treasurer's Report: The balance in Lakeside acct. is $8,324.79. York donation of $900 is outstanding.

OLD BUSINESS

A. Landmark Throws: 93 green and 50 black sold in one year. (recent sales 33 green 44 black) Discussion ensued about ordering more for the holiday season. Lisa to contact vendor to get information on lead time for production. Will request a special alumni message be sent in November marketing throws.

B. Football Alumni Night: Event was staffed by volunteers Kathy Wilson, Debbie Linhart, Lisa Fanelli and Karen Ross. Sales were light but agreed that exposure was good and served as a valuable marketing event. A conversation was had with Drew Maguire and the three present ychsaa officers about the need for assistance purchasing gift cards and items for the York holiday bags that York students and staff provide for financially challenged students and their families.

C. YDAP: General discussion of event occurred. Estimate for number of tables (ten) was accurate and the event went well. Set up for event took 1.5 hours spearheaded by Sharon O'Brien. Dukes in Need donation of $900 was presented by Kathy Wilson. Kathy assisted Jan with take down and return of items. Sold 4 Landmark Throws and received $120 in donations. Meeting with principal prior to set up did not happen. Kathy will work on arranging a meeting for December prior to break.

NEW BUSINESS

A. Tee shirts: 15 tee shirts (12L 3M) were ordered and picked up by Kathy.

B. Dukes in Need: York Social Worker indicated to Kathy that there is a need for approx 175 bags to contain the items for the students and families. Kathy investigating types and cost.

C. Year end: It was agreed that a meeting should be scheduled to wrap 2021 accounting and that there will be no December meeting. Lisa will make reservations for 12/16 luncheon. Due to covid concerns, it will not be an open luncheon but a small number of attendees will be invited.

D. Website: Discussion ensued about the need to update the website. Officers, photo, meeting info all incorrect. Lisa will work on a list of accomplishments and summary to send out in alumni newsletter and put on website.

Next meeting 1/18/2022
