FIRST AMENDMENT TO U. S. CONSTITUTION

1. At the beginning of the first hour of the first day of the school year after the attendance roll is taken, every student (kindergarten through 12) shall have read to him/her the following:

“The First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America reads as follows -

‘Freedom of Religion, of Speech, and of the Press - Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assembly, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.’”

2. At the beginning of the first hour of every pupil day of the school year, after the attendance roll is taken, there shall be two minutes of silence.
3. The principals shall require silence during these activities so that they may be accomplished.
4. In items 1 and 2 above, the first hour of the pupil day also refers to the first hour of each kindergarten session.

AMENDED: 1/12/76; 8/17/77; 7/19/82
