

Personnel – Non-Certified

Probationary/Continuing Contract Status

New employees shall be hired on a trial basis for a period of six calendar months, unless specified differently in a collective bargaining agreement. Upon evaluation by his/her immediate supervisor and the building administrator to which he/she is assigned, a recommendation to either retain or terminate employment shall be made to the Superintendent. The employee under consideration shall be informed of such decision by the Superintendent.