

Lions on the Front Line

As the COVID-19 pandemic impacts our city, state, country, and world, we are proud to recognize and celebrate a few Lions on the Front Line. The following community members represent St. Mark's well in their daily work and sacrifice to stop the virus, heal the sick, care for the vulnerable, and serve our communities. We are so proud and thankful for you!

