Principal's Message

Dilworth Family,

We are happy to once again have students in the building with us. We know there is some concern out there about the mask mandate being lifted by the State Legislature. We still recommend and encourage the use of masks while in the building to maintain that degree of safety we have had. There may be some concern out there with this as families do the best they can to protect loved ones for various reasons. As you navigate all this in making decisions that are best for your family, we ask that you communicate with teachers, and work with them.

Please remember parent conferences this week. We are holding them virtually. We ask that you make sure you have scheduled with your student's teacher(s). Along with that, please remember that both Thursday and Friday are early days with dismissal at 1:45 p.m.

Thanks for all you do,

Richard Squire, Principal

LIBRARY NEWS - Dragons Are Readers!

Week of January 24th - SEP Conferences - ONLINE only Book Fair

Collecting Laptops this morning. Please return all laptops, cords, mice, etc. to the Library so we can get the laptop carts re-wired with the charging cords and wipe down the laptops (per Covid), and return the carts to the classrooms. Thank you!

Sadly, our Book Fair has been moved to ONLINE only. Students will be given a Book Talk about books available from the Book Fair, at their reading level, in Library this week. Look for Wish Lists coming home! When you go to make a purchase, please be sure to put dilworth in the gift card/code spot so we get credit for what has been purchased by our Dilworth Community. The Book Fair is a way to bring beautiful books into your home and help out the Dilworth Library, a little bit. Thank you for your participation as it also helps The Story Cupboard, especially since they planned their inventory around an In-Person Book Fair.

MUSIC CLASS

Take NOTE!

Dilworth students celebrated the beginning of Winter Break with a Sing Along held December 17th. Each grade sang and performed a holiday number, including actions, props, and even a few bells! The Sing Along has been a long-time tradition at Dilworth as a way to unite and enjoy each other as fellow Dragons. We are grateful for the support of our 5th grade teacher, Linette Sheffield, our Music class accompanist, Nancy McClellan, and our librarian, Rachele Park for their help and know-how to pull it off!

In the month of January, Kindergarten through Third Grade students will attend music classes with Mrs. Berg and learn about the composer BACH. Bach was a well-educated man from Germany that lived in the late Baroque Time Period. We will talk about his life and listen to many familiar compositions, pointing out the instruments he used to play his compositions. Along with learning about Bach, we will be studying the various musical instrument families: strings, percussion, wind, and brass. And of course, we will SING! Each grade is focusing on songs that reflect their core curriculum and what they are studying in class; for example, the first grade is singing "Who Are the People in Your Neighborhood" as they talk about the various community helpers we notice and appreciate around us.

Music class is a bright, fun place to be! Dilworth students make my day all the better and I look forward to sharing the JOY that music brings each week!
