

LGBT+ History Month

Politics in Art: 'The Arc is Long'

2022 sees the 50th anniversary of the very first Pride March in the UK in 1972. A popular slogan of the early Gay Rights Movement of the time was "the personal is political", and art is probably the most individual of pastimes. Five artists have been selected to represent the 2022 theme of politics in art, one each to represent the L,G,B,T and '+' of the community.

'Dancing Figures' Keith Haring (1987)

'Fish Market, Cadaques' Doris Brabham Hatt (1962)

'Gladys Calthrop' Fiore de Henriquez (1938)

'Untitled' Jean-Michel Basquiat (1982)

'I'd Rather Be Beautiful' Mark Aguhar (2010)

WHAT'S ON:

Read a Rainbow

Scan the QR code to check out the full reading list from the Library!

Tutor Time Activities

Rainbow Alliance meeting!

