New in the library:

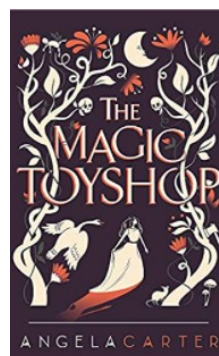

They have always scared him in the past – the Rangers, with their dark cloaks and shadowy ways. The villagers believe the Rangers practise magic that makes them invisible to ordinary people. And now 15-year-old Will, always small for his age, has been chosen as a Ranger's apprentice. What he doesn't yet realize is that the Rangers are the protectors of the kingdom. Highly trained in the skills of battle and surveillance, they fight the battles before the battles reach the people. And there is a large battle brewing. The exiled Morgarath, Lord of the Mountains of Rain and Night, is gathering his forces for an attack on the kingdom. This time, he will not be denied.

REBORN is the ripping sequel to the apocalyptic thriller REMADE. Eighteen months have passed since the events of REMADE. Leon and Freya have seen no sign of the virus, clinging on to the hope that two hard winters may have just killed it off. When news of a rescue ship arriving off the coast comes in, the pair are on the move once again. But all is not as safe as it seems. The virus has been busy. It has learned and evolved. And now it is reborn . . .

What's it like to grow up online and have every tantrum, every spot - even your first period - broadcast to hundreds of thousands of followers? A funny and heartfelt novel for fans of Geek Girl, from the award winning Tamsin Winter: "Fast becoming a favourite for younger teenagers." The Guardian Most parents try to limit their kids' online exposure. But not Eva's. Her parents run a hugely successful YouTube channel, and Eva is the star of the show. But Eva is getting sick of being made to pose in stupid mum-and-daughter matching outfits for sponsored posts. The freebies aren't worth the teasing at school. And when an intensely humiliating "period party" post goes viral, Eva is outraged. She's going to find a way to stop the channel, even if she has to sabotage it herself.

One night Melanie walks through the garden in her mother's wedding dress. The next morning her world is shattered. Forced to leave the home of her childhood, she is sent to live with relatives she has never met: gentle Aunt Margaret, mute since her wedding day; and her brothers, Francie and Finn. Brooding over all is Uncle Philip, who loves only the toys he makes in his workshop: clockwork roses and puppets that are life-size - and uncannily life-like.

Talking to:

Mrs Mitchell

Q) What book are you reading now? Are you enjoying it?

I'm reading 'The Thursday Murder Club' by Richard Osman, it had a gentle start but it grows on you until you can't put it down!

Q) Who was your favourite childhood author?

Anna Sewell who wrote 'Black Beauty'.

Q) What is the one title you think everyone should read and why?

'I am Malala' by Malala Yousafzai. Until I'd read this book I didn't fully understand the struggle that girls in Pakistan and similar countries went through to get an education.

Q) What advice do you have for students?

Go to bed early and read a book!

How To ...

... find a reading list

Go into your Reading Cloud account and select 'Reading List' from the blue menu along the top. Click on the reading list to see all of the titles.

The screenshot shows a digital reading list interface with several categories:
