The Employer, with regard to the cafeteria employees covered by this Agreement, shall require as a condition of employment during the life of this Agreement the payment on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of such employment or the effective date of such Agreement, whichever is later, a service fee to the employee organization which, in accordance with the provisions of the General Laws, Chapter 150E, is designated by the Labor Relations Commission as the exclusive bargaining agent for the unit in which such employee is employed; provided, however, that such service fee shall not be imposed unless the collective bargaining agreement requiring its payment as a condition of employment has been formally ratified pursuant to a vote of a majority of all employees in such bargaining unit present and voting. Such service fee shall be set by the Union and shall be proportionately commensurate with the cost of collective bargaining and contract administration.

ARTICLE XXII

EVALUATION

Section 1.

Performance evaluations are designed to serve the needs of both the employee and Employer. An organized program for employee performance evaluation will:

- A. Improve employee satisfaction and potentially reduce employee absenteeism, turnover, and grievances
- B. Serve as an important motivational tool and improve the quality of job performance
- C. Enhance the ability to achieve School Department goals through improved supervisor-employee communications
- D. Base personnel actions on objective, accurate and fair performance appraisals
- E. Monitor the performance of probationary employees on a timely basis.

Performance evaluation is the review and rating of all factors relevant to an employee's effectiveness on the job. It involves observation, guidance, training and open communication between the employee and supervisor. For it to be of significant benefit to both the individual employee and the Employer, it should be a continuous process.

Performance evaluation should be seen primarily as a developmental tool. Its purpose is to assess an employee's job-related strengths and weaknesses and develop his/her competence to the fullest. In a correctly executed evaluation, the supervisor and the employee work together to find the means by which the employee's ability can be strengthened and directed.

Section 2.

Probationary employees shall be evaluated at the completion of the first three months of probationary service and again at the completion of six months of probationary service. Performance evaluation of a non-probationary employee shall be made once per year and be completed by May 1 of each year or the first three years of service in a respective position and once every two years after three years of service. During the first year that this evaluation is implemented (Fiscal Year 2008), one-half of the employees with three or more years of service will be selected randomly for evaluation during that year, beginning their two-year cycle. The remaining employees with three or more years' service will begin their two-year evaluation cycle in the second year of implementation.

Such evaluation will be recorded in writing on the attached form and shall be based on the following criteria:

- A. Quality and quantity of work;

- B. Work Habits;
- C. Work Attitudes;
- D. Working relationships with others; and,
- E. Supervisory ability (if employee supervises others).

Section 3.

Each employee shall receive a written copy of his/her evaluation and shall be entitled to discuss the evaluation with his/her immediate supervisor and, if requested, with the supervisor of the next higher level than the immediate supervisor who has been assigned to review the performance evaluation. Full-time cafeteria workers will be evaluated by the Coordinator of Cafeterias.

Evaluations that are conducted by a member of the employee's bargaining unit will also be conducted and cosigned by the next immediate supervisor. Principals will have input to evaluations of staff who are assigned full time to their respective schools. All evaluations will be reviewed by each employee's respective Department Head. Respective Department Heads will not be members of the employee's bargaining unit.

Section 4.

The Executive Director of Human Resources, or her/his designee, shall receive and review all evaluations from the immediate supervisors and shall retain such evaluations, together with any recommendations made on the basis of any such evaluation, and evidence or materials submitted in support of such evaluation, in the respective Official Personnel File of each employee.

Section 5.

Any evaluation so retained in respect of any employee may be reviewed by such employee in the office of Human Resources at any reasonable time upon prior written notice, or whenever otherwise mutually agreed upon by the Executive Director of Human Resources and the employee. An employee shall have the right to file a written statement in response to any such evaluation.

Section 6.

- A. An employee may not grieve the substance of his/her evaluation, except where such evaluation results in a negative action.
- B. Employees may grieve the evaluation procedure, as set out in the preceding sections of this Article.

Section 7.

Individuals must be evaluated using the agreed upon process and form in order to be eligible for and receive the subsequent salary increases. An employee who is not evaluated through no fault of her/his own will remain eligible for salary increases and will receive agreed upon salary increases.

To the extent that an additional evaluation is necessary or required, such evaluation shall not be deemed to alter or amend the normal sequence of evaluations otherwise set forth in this description.

ARTICLE XXIII

INCLEMENT WEATHER/OTHER EMERGENCY

Full-time employees will receive up to three days of compensation during which school is cancelled because of inclement weather.

When a delayed opening occurs due to a weather or other emergency and Full Time employees are required to report to work at their regular time, they shall be paid time at the rate of one and one-half (1 ½) times their regular rate of pay for the period that they reported to work and the time the delayed opening occurs.

Inclement weather days for Part Time Employees

Each year, there will be a maximum of two (2) paid days allotted for Part Time employees to compensate for work days lost in the event of school cancellation for inclement weather. These days shall be calculated as follows:

Part Time employees scheduled to work fifteen (15) hours or more per week shall be entitled to two (2) days equal to three (3) hours per day,

Part Time employees working more than fifteen (15) hours per week but less than twenty (20) hours per week on a regular basis will receive two (2) days equal to four (4) hours per day.

These days will not accumulate, and will expire if unused by the end of the school year.

If, due to health emergency, pandemic, or other reason, and students and staff are not required to report to their normal place of work, the use of inclement weather days shall not be able to be utilized.

ARTICLE XXIV

LAYOFF AND RECALL

LAYOFF AND RECALL: In the event that there is a reduction in force, the principle of seniority within a departmental unit shall govern. Seniority shall be defined as longevity within a job series or "time in trade/grade". In the event that seniority, as so defined, is also equal, total continuous service within the bargaining unit, then the employer, and then the City including service prior to an authorized absence shall be the determining factor.

BUMPING: Employees who are qualified to perform work in other departments may bump less senior employees. If a person has previously held the position to which they seek to bump under this provision s/he shall be deemed qualified. In all cases the employee seeking to bump must be qualified to perform the duties and responsibilities of the position.

All employees laid off under this provision shall have reinstatement rights to the position he/she held in the departmental unit for a period of two (2) years. Employees laid-off pursuant to this provision shall be able to bid for posted positions in other City Departments or Divisions. The hiring decision will be made by the appropriate appointing authority and qualifications will be the determining factor in selecting a candidate.

Employees shall be selected for layoff in each job classification in each title according to the following order:

- 1) seasonal positions, at the discretion of the Appointing Authority;
- 2) emergency appointments, at the discretion of the Appointing Authority;
- 3) provisional or temporary employees with less than six (6) months seniority, at the discretion of the Appointing Authority;
- 4) provisional or temporary employees with more than six (6) months seniority, in inverse order of seniority;
- 5) permanent employees, in accordance with the provisions of M.G.L. c. 31.

It is the intention of the parties that the provisions of this Article should read to conform to the requirements of M.G.L. c.31. It is also the intention of the parties that the provisions of this Article apply except when prohibited by law.
