Overtime work shall be voluntary except when management has determined that the work must be completed on an overtime basis. PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS

Section 1

Performance evaluations are designed to serve the needs of both the employee and employer. An organized program for employee performance evaluation will:

- A. Improve employee satisfaction and potentially reduce employee absenteeism, turnover, and grievances
- B. Serve as an important motivational tool and improve the quality of job performance
- C. Enhance the ability to achieve School Department goals through improved supervisor-employee communications
- D. Base personnel actions on objective, accurate and fair performance appraisals
- E. Monitor the Performance of probationary employees on a timely basis

Performance evaluation is the review and rating of all factors relevant to an employee's effectiveness on the job. It involves observation, guidance, training and open communication between the employee and supervisor. For it to be of significant benefit to both the individual employee and the employer, it should be a continuous process.

Performance evaluation should be seen primarily as a developmental tool. Its purpose is to assess an employee's job-related strengths and weaknesses and develop his/her competence to the fullest. In a correctly executed evaluation, the supervisor and the employee work together to find the means by which the employee's ability can be strengthened and directed.

Section 2

Probationary employees shall be evaluated at the completion of the first three months of probationary service and again at the completion of the probationary service. The probationary period will be six months. However, if the employee hasn't completed the required professional services training, the probationary period will be extended until all training has been completed. Performance evaluation of a non-probationary employee shall be performed once every year and be completed by May 1 of each year of the first three years of service in a respective position and once every two years after three years of service. During the first year that this evaluation is implemented (Fiscal Year 2008), one-half of the employees with three or more years of service will be selected randomly for evaluation that year to begin their two year cycle. The remaining employees, with three or more years of service, will begin their alternate year evaluation cycle in the second year of implementation.

Such evaluation will be recorded in writing on the attached form and shall be based on the following criteria:

Quality and quantity of work;
Work habits;
Work attitudes;
Working relationships with others; and,
Supervisory ability (if employee supervises others).

Section 3

Each employee shall receive a written copy of his/her evaluation and shall be entitled to fully participate in the evaluation exercise with his/her immediate supervisor and, if requested, discuss the evaluation with the reviewing supervisor.

Employees will be evaluated by their immediate supervisor. All evaluations will be reviewed by the Director of Administrative & Environmental Services then the Chief Operating Officer. Evaluations that are conducted by a member of the employee's bargaining unit will also be conducted and cosigned by the next immediate supervisor.

Section 4

The Chief Operating Officer or her/his designee, shall receive and validate all evaluations and shall retain such evaluations, and evidence or materials submitted in support of such evaluation, in the respective official personnel file of each employee.

Section 5

Any evaluation so retained in respect of any employee may be reviewed by such employee in the Administration Building at any reasonable time upon prior written notice, or whenever otherwise mutually agreed upon by the Director of Administrative & Environmental Services and the employee. An employee shall have the right to file a written statement in response to any such evaluation.

Section 6

An employee may not grieve the substance of his/her evaluation, except where such evaluation results in a negative action. Employees may grieve the evaluation procedure if the process is not as set out in the preceding sections of this Article.

ARTICLE 19

- Part time employees not assigned to a building may be assigned to outside duties such as grass cutting or cleaning up school grounds.
- They shall serve a probationary period of ten (10) working months and shall be evaluated after five (5) working months of service and before ten (10) working months of service during their probationary period. They shall be required to re-apply for work yearly.
