

THE BOLT

WEEKLY FAMILY NEWSLETTER

Ongoing Summer Communication

All students now have Bridge Prep email accounts. Over the summer we will begin to send school communications and information to families through student Bridge Prep emails and the Remind app.

Please make sure you have access to both platforms. We will use these platforms to share:

- Summer resources to support ongoing summer learning
- Information about how to collect any personal items left in the school building
- Summer newsletters with real-time updates and pertinent information.

Please note, Bridge Prep email accounts may only be used to communicate between school staff and families with a Bridge Prep email address.

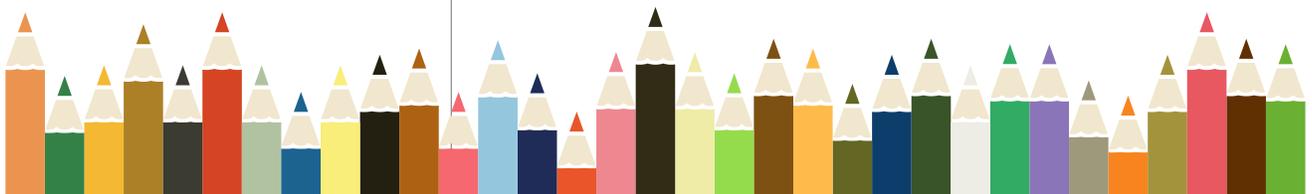

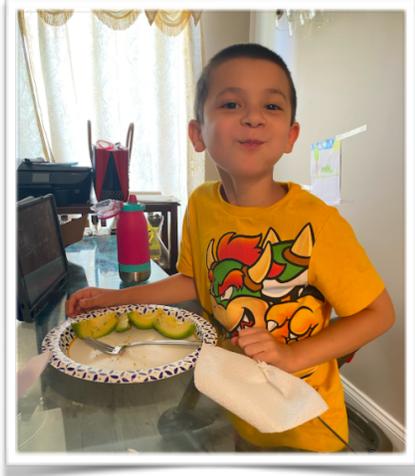

We want to hear from you!

We are working with the NYC Department of Education and State Education Department on planning for re-opening. While we are guardedly optimistic that there will be some flexibility to respond creatively to family needs, we are going to be restricted by DOE and State guidelines on some major factors. As more information becomes available over the next few weeks, into the summer, we will continue to reassess our options.

While we are still unsure if our school building will be permitted to open in September, it is extremely important for us to have your input, which along with guidelines from the State, DOE and Department of Health, will guide us in our planning. As such, we are asking that you complete this survey by Friday June 19:

There will be no live teaching sessions on June 22nd. Teachers will be available for conferences to discuss your Bridge Builder's progress. You will receive an email to schedule conferences from both your classroom and Orton-Gillingham teachers.

Family to Family

Our new signs have arrived, and they are BOLD, BRIGHT, and UNIQUE! Any new or existing family that is interested in showing their Bridge Prep pride by placing a sign on your lawn, window, or any other location, please email the Family Association at bpf charter@gmail.com or send them a message on Remind. Include how many signs you want and an association member will set up a time to drop them off to you!
