GFWC (General Federation of Women’s Clubs) Maine and the Maine Council for Elder Abuse Prevention (MCEAP) are working together to raise awareness about elder abuse in Maine. GFWC Maine and MCEAP are pleased to announce a $1,000 scholarship to be awarded to a Maine student who has successfully completed requirements for graduation from a Maine high school and who will be attending college or a certification program as a full-time student during the 2022-2023 academic year. A winner will also be selected from each participating county and will be awarded a $50 scholarship.

Criteria for selection include: an essay with content about elder abuse and your academic average. The completed application should contain: 1. A 500 word, double-spaced essay in response to the question: “What is elder abuse and why does it matter to you?” 2. A copy of your high school transcripts, 3. A letter of acceptance from a college or university as soon as possible but due no later than May 1.
