

OBCF Scholarship Program 2022

The Outer Banks Community Foundation manages and coordinates many diverse scholarship funds (up to 60 this year!).

Here is a list of the awards and a brief overview: <https://obcf.org/scholarships/scholarship-programs/>

OBCF Scholarship application goes live on their website Monday, February 7, 2022 (www.obcf.org), which is TODAY!

- OBCF Scholarship application deadline for students & student recommendations is Monday, March 7, 2022
- This is an online application. Once you fill out the application, it will apply to any and all of their scholarships for which you are eligible. There is one personal essay but note, if you wish to apply to the Milton Jewel one, you do have to complete a second personal statement part.
- OBCF Scholarship finalists Interviews will be Friday April 1, and Monday, April 4 and Tuesday, April 5 (3 days for interviews – Wednesday can be scheduled if needed as backup)
Not all of the scholarships have interviews.

In 2021 despite decreasing number of college applicants and further pandemic challenges, they awarded almost $175,000 to 51 local students. The application process remains the same as last year, with some minor additions asking for voluntary demographic information for data gathering purposes.

Let me know if you have any questions, need help or want me to read over anything before you submit your application!
