

Cyber bullying

The internet used to be a place of fun
Where I could go to every day
Who knew that with a hurtful message
It could all be taken away?
Now when I go on my computer,
I dread what I might see
Thousands upon thousands of hateful emails
And all directed at me
My phone always rings from messages
The comments make me cry
Cyber bullying is a horrible thing
And I'm about to tell you why
It hurts other people's feelings
Your words mean more than you know
So make the internet a better place
A place you'd want to go
