SOCIAL WORLD
World History	American History	European History
Geographical and Historical Thinking	Geographical and Historical Thinking	Geographical and Historical Thinking
Can place key events of the historical era in chronological order and apply chronological terms correctly, including decade, century, and generation	Can place key events of the historical era in chronological order and apply chronological terms correctly, including decade, century, and generation	Can place key events of the historical era in chronological order and apply chronological terms correctly, including decade, century, and generation
Can describe the difference between a primary source document and a secondary source document and the relationships	Can describe the difference between a primary source document and a secondary source document and the relationships	Can describe the difference between a primary source document and a secondary source document and the relationships between them
between them	between them Can analyze primary resources	Can analyze primary resources
Can analyze primary resources	Can analyze primary resources	Can analyze visual resources to gather information
Can analyze visual resources to gather information	Can analyze visual resources to gather information	Can annotate visual resources to communicate claims
Can annotate visual resources to communicate claims	Can annotate visual resources to communicate claims	Can distinguishing among facts, supported inferences, and opinions
Can distinguishing among facts, supported inferences, and opinions	Can distinguishing among facts, supported inferences, and opinions	Can compare different people's perspectives
Can compare different people's perspectives	Can compare different people's perspectives	Can construct various timelines of key elements, people, and periods of the historical periods studied and explain how major events are related to each
Can evaluate events and make judgments	Can construct various timelines of key	other
Can evaluate events and make judgments about the relative impacts of each event	elements, people, and periods of the historical periods studied and explain how major events are related to each other	Can analyze maps and make inferences

	T	T
Can construct various timelines of key	Can evaluate events and make judgments	Can evaluate events and make judgments about the elements, people, and periods of the	about the relative impacts of each event	relative impacts of each event
1 ' ' ' ' '	Can analyze maps and make inferences
historical periods studied and explain how	Can analyze maps and make interences
major events are related to each other		Can place events on a map
Can evaluate events and make judgments about the relative impacts of each event	Can place events on a map
Can analyze maps and make inferences
Can place events on a map
Can create maps, using conventional methodologies of the Inca, Aztec, and Maya empires
Can create maps, using conventional methodologies, illustrating key trade routes

Geographical and Historical Understanding

Can name the Five Themes of Geography and explain how they relate to where peoples have historically settled

Can discuss the geographic advantages that led to the development of the first civilizations

Can identify and locate physical geographic features of Africa and Asia

Can identify are the characteristics of a civilization?

Can discuss the challenges and solutions that led to the development of Ancient Sumerian city-states

Can identify the common Needs of the People

Can discuss the characteristics of daily life in Ancient Egypt

Can discuss how the Aryan invasion of the Indus Valley changed the social system and religious beliefs in the Asian subcontinent

Can identify the defining characteristics of the Maurya and Gupta Empires

Geographical and Historical Understanding

Can analyze a revolution and identify the stages as they apply to the fever model

Demonstrates understanding of the causes, course, and consequences of the American Revolution

Can discuss the significance of Revolutionary War battles and leaders

Can explain how individuals and groups influenced the colonies and Britain

Can analyze political cartoons and identify and discuss propaganda strategies used

Has an understanding of the important ideas and documents that came out of the American Revolution

Can identify various forms of government and discuss their characteristics

Can compare different forms of government and evaluate the pros and cons of each form

Can identify present day implications of the Constitution and Bill of Rights

Has an understanding of early disagreements between American states and the compromises that were made to try and satisfy all parties

Geographical and Historical Understanding

Can discuss how the collapse of the Roman Empire and the end of Charlemagne's rule led to the feudal system

Can explain how feudalism protected people

Can identify the roles and responsibilities of the different classes in feudalism

Can discuss the functions and importance of castles and cathedrals in the Middle Ages

Can discuss the influence of the Roman Catholic Church in the Middle Ages and identify institutions that serve similar functions in modern times

Can discuss what types of power the Church had and how it was able to gain that power

Can discuss the purpose of pilgrimages and the Crusades and who participated in them

Can discuss the relationship between art and architecture and the Church

Can discuss why people became monks, nuns, and friars and what their role was in society

Can identify factors that led to the development of towns in Western Europe in the Middle Ages

Can describe what life was like in Medieval towns in Western Europe

Can identify changes that occurred due to the Moghul invasion of the Indian subcontinent

Can discuss the effect of the practice of Islam on the Indian subcontinent

Can compare the basic beliefs of Hindism and Buddhism

Can identify the philosophical beliefs that determined the structure of society in ancient China

Can identify the basic beliefs of Shintoism

Can compare and contrast the Chinese dynasties

Can identify the cultural influences of China and Korea on Japan

Can generate and support an argument for the role of isolation and invasion on the development of culture in the regions explored

Can discuss daily life in Tenochtitlan
Can compare the civilizations of the Inca, Aztec, and Maya including politics, society, daily life, religion, art and entertainment, communication, and impacts of physical geography

Can explain and analyze scenarios using the economics concepts of: opportunity Can identify the three branches of government and discuss how a balance of power is ensured

Can discuss how the Federalist and Republican visions for the United States differed

Has a geographic understanding of the United States and can identify which states were slave states and which were free states

Can explain key differences between life in the North and life in the South

Can discuss the conditions of slavery and discrimination in the American South in the 1800's

Has an understanding of changes of early 19th century industrialization in America

Can identify reform movements of the mid 1800's and discuss their impact on the lives of Americans

Can discuss events of the mid-1800's that served to bring the nation together and events that pulled the nation apart

Can discuss the factors and events that influenced the outcome of the Civil War

Can discuss the meaning and significance of the Emancipation Proclamation and General Order 143 Can discuss the purpose & structure of the guild system

Can explain how political developments in Europe, the rise of the Bubonic Plague, and the Hundred Years' War contributed to the decline of Feudalism and the rise of democratic thought

Can identify the events that led to the Crusades

Can discuss the initial goals of the Crusades and how they changed over time

Can discuss how the Crusades affected those who fought

Can identify the political, economic and social impact of the Crusades on Europe & the Muslim world

Can discuss the negative impacts of the Crusades on the lives of Jews in Western Europe

Can discuss the origin and spread of Islam

Can discuss how the geography and location of the Arabian Peninsula contributed to the spread of Islam

Can identify & explain the beliefs & practices of Islam

Can discuss some of the challenges Muslims currently face in the US when it comes to their beliefs cost, inflation, supply and demand, and command versus market economies

Can analyze images to compare life in developing and developed countries

Can discuss major ancient/medieval trade routes including producers and consumers, time frame in which it was used, reasons for its formation, reason for its decline (if any), and the main products traded along the route

Can discuss the effects of Union victories at Gettysburg and Vicksburg

Can identify the policies of Reconstruction and discuss the extent to which these policies brought African-Americans closer to full citizenship Can identify important innovations and developed by Muslims of the medieval world

Can discuss how the growth of trade and commerce contributed to the development of culture during the Renaissance

Can discuss why the Renaissance began in Italy

Can distinguish between classical, medieval, and Renaissance art

Can explain how Martin Luther's 95 theses set the Reformation in motion

Can discuss the advances made during the Renaissance and how leading figures of the Renaissance have affected modern society

Can identify factors that led to the weakening of the Catholic Church and the beginning of the Reformation

Can discuss tactics early reformers used to protest the culture and practices of the Church Can compare and contrast the many Protestant churches that developed as a result of the Reformation

Can discuss how the Reformation and Counter-Reformation led to war, increasing nationalism, and the spread of Christianity

Can explain how the decline of feudalism, the Crusades, the spread of Islam, the Reformation, and the Renaissance contributed to the Age of Exploration

Can explain how the geography and popular London changed from its founding to the priday
Can discuss key leaders, events, and landma historic periods in England from the Middle through the Victorian era.	