General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form W-9, at www.irs.gov/w9. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, payments made to you in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

Dear Sir/Madam:

In response to your request for verification of the sales tax exemption for purchases made by Choctaw-Nicoma Park Public Schools, Choctaw, Oklahoma, we recognize public schools to be exempt from payment of sales tax pursuant to Title 68 O.S. 2002 Supp., Section 1356 which we quote in part:

There are hereby specifically exempted from the tax levied by this article:

* * * * *

(10) Sale of tangible personal property or services to any county, municipality, rural water district, public school district, the institutions of the Oklahoma State System of Higher Education, . . .

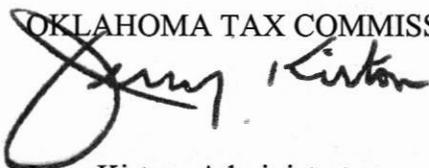

Pursuant to 68 O.S. Section 1404, any purchase exempt from sales tax is also exempt from use tax.

Because we do not issue "sales tax permits" to public schools that are exempt by statute, you may provide vendors with a copy of this letter for documentation concerning your sales tax exemption. Expenses, including travel, incurred on a reimbursable basis are not sales tax exempt.

The response contained in this letter applies only so long as you maintain the status set out in your request of March 29, 2004. This exemption does not expire, but any change in your status may invalidate this letter. This letter may not be used by any entity other than the addressee.

If we can be of further assistance, please feel free to contact us at (405) 521-3160.

Sincerely,
