There will be two showings: one in the morning for the Seniors and one in the afternoon for the Juniors. Both plays will be during the school day on campus.

Actor Jim Coleman is determined to heal the wounds of racial tension that divide our nation through our live multi-media production,

Tolton: From Slave to Priest.

Join him by bringing the amazing story of America's first Black priest to your community.

Performing solo on stage with a cast of characters projected on the screen behind him, Jim has seen people's hearts, minds and spirits transformed.

"This show is for everyone right now," he explains. "Father Tolton has changed my life. For me, this started out as a job, but now I see it as a mission."

Tips for Addressing Academic Concerns

• Monitor PowerSchool—parents have access to PowerSchool, which allows them to closely monitor their son's performance in his coursework. Login information was mailed to each family at the start of the school year. If you are still in need of PowerSchool login information, please contact Mrs. Shipton at mshipton@romancatholichs.com

• Open Dialogue with your Son—As grades are entered into PowerSchool, have a conversation with your son about both the positive grades as well as the grades that need to be improved. Providing your sons with positive feedback throughout the marking period often makes it easier to address academic obstacles. When assignments are missing or test grades are low, this timely dialogue with your son is critical. The importance of completing work on time and studying for assessments is critical to a student's success at Roman Catholic High School.

• Email the Teachers—the Roman Catholic Faculty is comprised of many talented educators who are here to support your sons along their academic journey. After having a conversation with your son, please feel free to reach out to your son's teachers through email.

• Please give teachers 48 hours to respond as their teaching loads consist of around 150 students. Also, feel free to copy the Department Chair for the academic discipline on your correspondence to the teacher. The Department Chair emails can be found below:

- Theology—Mr. Jim Murphy - jmurphy@romancatholichs.com
