AP HUMAN GEOGRAPHY

Mr. Garasich

HUMAN GEOGRAPHY?

Yes! The study of our world and the people in it and how they interact with each other and the land around them. (It's more interesting than it sounds!)

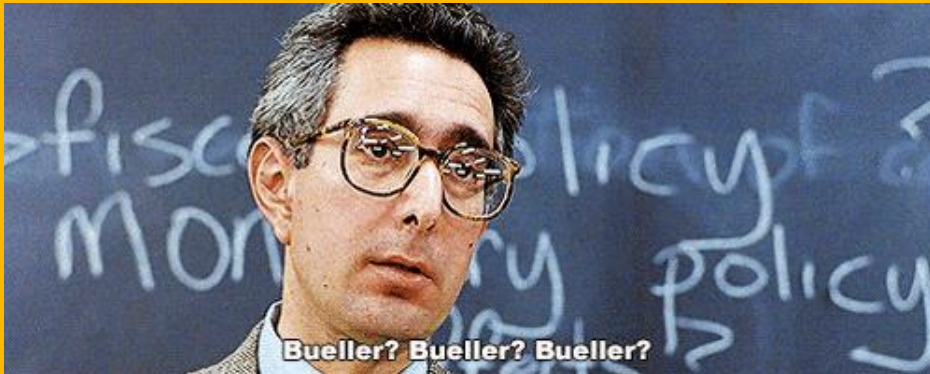

WHAT HUMAN GEO IS

- Cultures around the world
- Modern technological advancements' impact on civilization
- Global Movements
- Population trends
- Agricultural and Urban development
- Politics and Religion

WHAT HUMAN GEO IS NOT

- MEMORIZING COUNTRIES AND CAPITAL CITIES
- HISTORY LESSONS ON EVERY COUNTRY AROUND THE WORLD
- BORING

Mt. Rushmore: All of America's most important people

COOL STUFF!!!

- Interactive videos and built in resources through AP Classroom
- Weighted grading that helps your GPA
- Potential for College Credit
- Exotic Chocolate Tasting
- Civilization and Map Creation
- A deeper understanding of the world around you
- Tons of new facts to impress your crush with
- Mr. G's Corny Jokes
