A conference for those taking on Leadership Roles in Boarding Communities – 2022

ABSA holds an annual conference for those new to leadership positions in boarding including those moving from one boarding role to a new school, or for those are completely new to boarding.

This is a wonderful professional learning and networking day shared with those in the same situation and will give participants practical skills and a strong understanding of the challenge of taking on a new leadership role in boarding. The day will also provide excellent networking opportunities for those who attend 'live'.
