DEAR FRIENDS,

The beginning of Roman Basketball dates back to the beginning of the sport itself. In 1890, the first team of Student-Athletes was formed to represent the Cahillites of Broad & Vine. In the intervening 130 years of history, the reputation of Roman Basketball has grown and developed. Regularly, our teams find themselves in national rankings, considered among the elite programs in the country.

But as Michael Jordan has said, "While there is no "I" in team, there is in "Win!" Therefore, on behalf of the entire Roman Catholic High School community, I extend our sincere gratitude to all of our sponsors and benefactors who provide the support necessary for our team to excel. We are grateful to our Coaching staff, especially Mr. Chris McNesby, for not only being excellent coaches and mentors, but most importantly for being such remarkable role models for our athletes. We are thankful for our parents and guardians who entrust their greatest asset to our care. And last, but not least, we are appreciative of our student-athletes. Your drive, work ethic and passion for success, inspires not only your peers and fellow students, but all who have the opportunity to see you play on the hardwood. While we are very proud of your athletic abilities and accomplishments, we are more proud of the fine young men you are becoming. You represent the best of RCHS! Good luck in the PCL!

Sincerely,

DEAR FANS OF ROMAN BASKETBALL

I am really excited to be back at Roman and looking forward to a great season!

It should be another exciting year of basketball at Broad & Vine. We have a great group of seniors this year who we will lean on to lead us and represent the program well. We want to thank all our alumni, families and fans for all their support this season. It's all of you who make this annual program book possible. This will be a collector's item every year!

Let's go Roman!!!

Did you know?

Roman Catholic Basketball has produced FIVE McDonald's All-Americans since the game's inception in 1978-Reggie Jackson '78, Lonnie McFarlan '80, Dallas Comegys '83, Mark Stevenson '85, Eddie Griffin '00, and Maalik Wayns '09. Coach Speedy Morris '60 was the coach of the East Team at The Spectrum in 1978.

THIS IS ROMAN CATHOLIC BASKETBALL

Thomas E. Cahill

It is said that an old wine grows better with age. This statement could also be made when describing Roman Catholic High School and the many young men that have graced the halls. Over one hundred and thirty years have passed since the school that Thomas E. Cahill founded began to rise above the corner of Broad and Vine Streets. Since then, there has been a continuous line of purple and gold-clad men who have entered society prepared for the future.

Dr. James Naismith

For over a century, Dr. James Naismith's game has been played at Catholic High in the historic third-floor gym. To the present day, Roman Catholic is known nation-wide for its basketball program. Roman has had a great basketball tradition since the very first game was played in 1899. The first game was a loss to Rex A.A. by the score of 18-8, but the explosion was about to come. In 1902, a former professional basketball player accepted the coaching position at the young school. Billy Markward led the Purple and Gold for 40 years, an unprecedented amount of dedication and loyalty. Sporting a style of play decades ahead of their time, his teams were sheer greatness. From 1902 to 1942, Coach Markward's Roman teams won 20 titles in various interscholastic leagues and the Philadelphia Catholic League. The 1934 "Mighty Mites" team is now a Philadelphia high school sports legend. It must be recognized that Roman Catholic became the first integrated high school basketball team in the country in 1902-03. Roman was threatened with suspension by the interscholastic league if they allowed Johnny Lee, the son of a former slave, to play on the team. In a team meeting with Coach Markward, one by one the team members stated if Lee could not play, they would not play. Roman took a stand for justice and equality many years before Jackie Robinson broke baseball's color barrier.

Billy Markward and 1902-03 Basketball Team

Billy Markward

The years after Markward were ones of highs and lows. The 1943 team lost their first four games, yet battled back to make the playoffs and capture the Catholic League Title. They later defeated City Title holder West Philadelphia to take home the Red Cross Championship at the Palestra. During the period between 1944 and 1967, Roman had many talented individual players but failed to capture any titles.

In 1968, Coach Bill "Speedy" Morris returned to his alma mater to take over the Cahillite program, and in doing so, lead the Cahillites into the playoffs for the first time since 1943. In 1969, his team captured the

1969 PCL Championship Team with Coach Morris (far right)

Catholic League Title in only Coach Morris' second year. In total, Morris' teams won 6 Catholic League crowns, 7 Southern Division Titles, a City Title, and 2 Alhambra Catholic Titles while placing Roman Catholic on the national high school basketball radar. "Speedy" produced many fine players who are ever grateful for their guidance and training under Coach Morris. Coach Morris retired after the 2019 season at St. Joe's Prep with 1,035 career victories and was truly one of Roman's finest and is the all-time leader in victories in the Philadelphia Catholic League.

In 1982, Barry Brodzinski came to Roman and built on the program's success. Brodzinski led the Cahillites to a pair of Catholic League Titles in 1982 and 1986 while producing some of the city's best talent and young men, including Dallas Comegys, a first-round NBA Draft pick in 1987 after an All-American career at DePaul University.

Dennis Seddon

From 1987 to 2008, Coach Dennis Seddon guided the Cahillites with unrivaled success. A true gentleman on and off the court, Seddon guided the Cahillites to a school record 516 wins. In his third season at Broad and Vine, Roman captured the 1989 Catholic League crown and began a streak of 6 straight Catholic League Titles. During this run, Seddon's teams possessed a 50-game winning streak against Catholic League opponents from 1990 through 1992. Three of his teams went undefeated in Catholic League regular season and playoff action. In all, Dennis Seddon's Roman teams captured 10 Catholic League Titles, 4 Alhambra Catholic Titles, and numerous tournament crowns across the United States. His legacy includes over 36 former players who are now involved in coaching. Six of his players have progressed to the NBA and many more have played professionally overseas. One is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Most of Seddon's graduates have matriculated to college and many have graced the college basketball hardwood.

Chris McNesby, one of Seddon's former point guards, lead Roman Catholic Basketball into the PIAA era of Catholic League Basketball from 2009 through 2016. The 2014-2015 season was one of Roman Catholic's all-time finest, as the Cahillites compiled a 29-2 overall record. In doing so, Roman received a national ranking by every major media outlet. The Cahillites earned a clean sweep of every title-two prestigious preseason tournament titles, the Catholic League Championship in front of a sold out Palestra, the District 12 crown for the third consecutive year, and the first PIAA State Championship in the 125-year history of Catholic High. Not to be outdone, the Cahillites answered the call in the 2015-16 season, defending their Gonzaga DC title along with the Catholic League, District 12, and a second straight PIAA AAAA State Championship. Coach McNesby was named Pennsylvania Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and the USA Today after a 27-4 overall record and a national ranking. These two seasons were truly ones that many fans will remember forever. There was no greater sound than hearing the student section belt out the words of "The Purple and Gold" in celebration.

Chris McNesby

Matt Griffin

Matt Griffin, who played for Coach Morris at St. Joseph's Prep, and the son of Roman Catholic and St. Joseph's University Hall of Famer John Griffin, coached the Cahillites for five seasons. An All-Catholic guard and a starting point guard at Boston University in the NCAA Tournament, Coach Griffin was also instrumental in player development at St. Joseph's Prep on Coach Morris' staff. In only his second season, Griffin's Cahillites embarked on a remarkable run to the Catholic League title over a favored Bonner-Prendergast team and the PIAA 6A State Championship in a high-scoring tilt over Philly's Abraham Lincoln. Griffin's Cahillites finished last season with a 24-6 record and a #28 ranking in the country by MaxPreps.

Not to be outdone, the Cahillites backed up their campaign in 2018-19 with a December victory over #5 nationally ranked Imhotep Charter and a solid showing in the Chick-Fil-A Classic against national caliber competition in Columbia, South Carolina. Coach Griffin's troops embarked on a Catholic League campaign that saw the Purple and Gold only drop one game on the road by one point. The icing on the cake was yet another night at the Palestra where the student section belted out "The Purple and Gold." After reaching the PCL final in a pandemic shortened 2020 season, one in which Griffin's Cahillites reached the final game in four of five straight seasons, Coach Matt moved on to the University of Albany as an assistant to head coach Dwayne Killings.

Roman Catholic High School is honored to have Coach Chris McNesby back for his second stint as head basketball coach. Now a member of the RCHS Sports Hall of Fame, McNesby is excited to be back at Broad and Vine and looks forward to the 2021-22 season.

Throughout the many years of basketball at Catholic High, Roman Catholic basketball players strive to achieve not only on the hardwood but in the classroom as well. While producing great talent and teams, the Roman Catholic Basketball Program has produced great men who have made their families, school, alumni, and city proud to follow Roman Catholic Basketball - A Great Philadelphia Tradition!

THURSDAY, JANUARY 6, 2022

We the sistahs of Tamar Talks would like to congratulate our very own Khayad Jones and his Freshmen basketball team the Cahillites. We are extremely proud of you Khayad, your intelligence, enthusiasm, your spirit of brotherhood, cooperation and most importantly, your willingness to represent Christ wherever you go.

Continue to be a role model, setting high standards for yourself and creating a future of great things.

Finally, remember you come from strong loving supporters who will continue to hold you in high regard because you are amazing.

Sincerely,

The Sistahs at Tamar Talks

A Vision of Promise

While Roman Catholic High School has a great and storied history, preparing young men for the future is our primary goal. After years of thoughtful planning, with the engagement and support of students, alumni, trustees, and the Board of Advisors, Roman has embarked on a transformational campaign to provide programs and facilities that will enable our students to actualize their potential as lifelong learners and leaders, equipped to make a difference in the world. The Campaign is entitled: A Vision of Promise (VOP). This Master Plan promotes a campus expansion that will proceed in four phases:

Phase 1 – Howard Center for the Arts (Completed and opened in Sept. 2018)

The Howard Center facilities include:

- Computer-aided Design (CAD) Lab
- Kiln Room
- Digital Media Studio
- Band Room
- Black Box Theatre

Phase 2 – STEM Center

- Will contain innovative classrooms dedicated to the study of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM)
- New biology, chemistry, and physics laboratories
- Active learning classroom to connect Roman students with other students around the world
- Space for expanded dining hall and updated kitchen

Phase 3 – The Field House

- 1,200-seat athletic facility
- Suspended indoor track
- Locker rooms
- Athletic trainer area.
- Space for vital school programs such as assemblies, social events, and ceremonies

Phase 4 – The 1890 Building Reimagined

- Present gym space will be repurposed into an auditorium.
- The remainder of the gym area will be transformed into a chapel

If interested in contributing to the “Vision of Promise” campaign please contact Nicholas Pytel '97, Executive Director of Mission Advancement, NPytel@RomanCatholicHS.com, 215-627-5487 ext. 204.

"Roman Catholic students have endless opportunities to become involved. The extremely dedicated faculty and staff have pushed me to leave my comfort zone, develop new interests, and achieve a strong sense of independence. I feel I am well prepared for my college journey."
