What is PTA?

PTA stands for Parent, Teacher Association. The PTA encourages parent, teacher, student, and community involvement, and forms a partnership with our schools to improve the educational experience.

What is Adelante PTA?

Adelante PTA consists of active parents and teachers whose goal is to enrich the lives of all children. Proceeds from our school fundraisers have assured that important resources and experiences are available at our school. Parent volunteers make sure our kids are academically exceeding.

In non-Covid years PTA helps organize events such as on-site Scholastic Book Fair, Movie Nights, Teacher Appreciation, Parent Pachanga and the end of the year Adelante Carnival. Our primary fundraisers are Adelante Ninos and Maraton de Lectura/Reading Marathon. Money raised is used for 2 field trips for each class, reducing the cost for Science Camp and purchasing much needed reading material for our children. You can volunteer as much as you can via committees or by serving on the board in leadership roles. Leaders typically volunteer 5 to 10 hours a month.

How to get involved?

You can become a member by join her.

In addition there are many ways to get involved. You can volunteer to assist with an event already being planned or that will be planned. You can lead a planning committee or you can help the board or become a board member OR Just join online at https://jointotem.com/ca/san-jose/adelante-pta
