Ninth Grade

- Natasha Miller! Natasha is a great student. She is always eager to learn. She sets a great example. Natasha is in my largest class where it may sometimes seem pretty hectic, but she will always be on track and get her work done. ~F. Feinauer

Tenth Grade

- Stephanie Alvarez! Stephanie is a joy to have in class. She is always smiling. She is a great participant and a student I can count on. She is an excellent example of her junior class. ~F. Feinauer
- Nallely Galeano! Nallely is always so cheerful. She has a positive attitude that is contagious. She is willing to do whatever is asked of her and willing to help others around her. ~F. Feinauer

Eleventh Grade

- Cindy Ozorio! Cindy did an awesome job this week with her phlebotomy checkoffs! ~J. Wallace
- Karime Palacios! Karime thoroughly analyzes novels and picks up on minute details that would escape the average reader. She offers clarifying details about the novel that is a benefit to everyone in the class. She is an indispensable asset to her peers and to me as an instructor. ~A. Shackelford

Twelfth Grade

- Brianna Escoto Gomez! Brianna is a fantastic student. She lets me know when she will be absent so that she can stay caught up on assignments, she asks clarifying questions to help her understand texts/assignments fully, and she is a kind, insightful student. I enjoy having her in my class. ~A. Shackelford
