Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Since this pandemic started, our number one priority has been to keep our community healthy and safe while maintaining in-person Mass, instruction, and activities. Throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, we have followed the directives and recommendations of the CDC, the Commonwealth, Fairfax County, and the Diocese of Arlington, to achieve that goal.

On February 25, 2022, the CDC revised COVID-19 metrics used for informing communities on the level of mitigation strategies that should be implemented. At this time, Northern Virginia is considered at the level "low," and CDC does not recommend universal masking or distancing requirements other than in higher-risk settings, such as health care or congregate living facilities. At this time, effective March 1, 2022, OLGC will not require vaccinated staff, volunteers, or ministers to wear masks on campus. However, we recognized people may be more comfortable wearing a mask or need to wear a mask for various reasons. We ask all to be respectful of each other and respect their desires out of Christian concern and charity.

Important to note is that isolation and quarantine protocols remain the same. If you are sick or have symptoms of contagious illness (fever, coughing, sneezing, sore throat, etc.), please do not come to the OLGC campus. If you or your child is COVID positive or exposed to COVID and are a student, minister, or volunteer at OLGC, contact your leader and let them know you tested positive. You can resume ministry service or attend Mass on day 11.

Please continue to stay up to date with COVID-19 vaccines, get tested if you have symptoms, and visit the Fairfax County Dept of Health website for information on COVID-19 protocols, vaccines, boosters, and testing.

We are Moving Forward Together in the Service of God.
 Live Jesus! ~ Fr. Matt

You are invited to join the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales on Saturday, March 26, 2022, for the 17th Annual Live Jesus! Event at St John Neumann Catholic Community, Reston, VA. "Healing Relationships...Let It Begin with Me," is this year's theme, and invites attendees to reflect on the relationships in their lives. Keynote speaker is Fr. Tom Dailey, OSFS, STL, The John Cardinal Foley Chair of Homiletics & Social Communications and Professor of Theology at Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia, PA. Register at www.oblates.org.

The 2022 BLA is underway! Theme is "Do this in remembrance of me." Last weekend we asked everyone to make a pledge to support the work of our diocesan programs and ministries which provide services that no parish could provide on its own. Our parish goal is 100% participation. By participating in the BLA, we remember the gift that Christ Himself gave us through His body and blood, and are asked to respond to His call to serve our brothers and sisters. You can make a gift at:

www.arlingtondiocese.org/BLA.

Why Catholics Should Care About Our

Common Home? Pope Francis called on Catholics to embrace the urgent challenge to protect the whole human family and all of creation in the encyclical Laudato Sí: On Care for Our Common Home. The Diocese will address how to do so at a special Mass and conference Sat. March 12th at 5pm at Church of the Nativity. The event will launch the Diocese's 7-year effort to teach and implement Pope Francis' encyclical on the integral ecology of God's creation. Register <https://carefourcommonhome.eventbrite.com>

Cuaresma, Tiempo de Conversión: La Cuaresma es un tiempo litúrgico muy importante, que nos prepara para la Fiesta de Pascua. La Cuaresma toma su nombre del número cuarenta, que en la Sagrada Escritura es un tiempo de preparación y travesía. Tiene una duración de 40 días desde el miércoles de ceniza hasta el inicio de la Semana Santa el Domingo de Ramos. Los 40 días reflejan el tiempo que duró Cristo en el desierto (Mt 4, 2), tiempo en el cual fue tentado por Satanás, pero nunca fue vencido. Precisamente Cuaresma nos ayuda a vencer las tentaciones del mal, que buscan apartarnos del camino de Cristo. Si observamos, el enemigo buscó tentar a Cristo de tres maneras: tentándolo sobre el dominio de su cuerpo, sobre la confianza en Dios y sobre el apego a las riquezas del mundo. Pero Cristo mismo lo derrotó y por ello se nos invita a practicar distintas formas de penitencia como el ayuno para dominar nuestro cuerpo, la oración para fortalecer nuestra confianza en Dios, y la limosna para desatarnos del egoísmo y ayudar al prójimo (Mt 6, 1-18).

SEASONED CITIZENS LUNCHEON –

Thursday, March 17, is the day for you to come and enjoy another luncheon for OLGC seniors in DeSales Hall, where the doors open at Noon. It's St. Patrick's Day, and there need not be any guessing about what the menu will feature. Of course, it's going to be traditional Irish food! Please make your reservation as soon as possible, because none will be accepted after the deadline of Monday, March 14. As explained last week, it all has to do with planning, allowing time to purchase everything that's needed for the event, and meeting the challenges of the supply chain issues and inflation. This event is probably our most popular luncheon, drawing a large crowd, so register early.

You can RSVP in several ways:

- online at www.olgcva.org click "View News" to find announcement
- emailing Dagny at seasonedcitizens@olgcva.org or
- call Dagny at 703-281-5525.

And be sure to wear something green and come prepared to be Irish for the day!

The Book Swap Table will be there for you to leave a book or two or a jigsaw puzzle (nothing else, please) and take something that appeals to you. This is a great way to pick up a free book (or more) and get rid of the ones you've accumulated.

YOU'RE INVITED! – Please come to the NARFE Chapter meeting at 1:30 pm this Tuesday, March 8, at the Vienna Community Center. The guest speakers will be Cindy Hyder and Patty Coppola of America's Downsizing & Decluttering Consultants. There is no charge, and members and guests are most welcome. Please call 703-205-9041 to register for planning purposes. This topic is so popular; there always seems to be something new learned. Spring is on the horizon – the information you get will be a big help in making that big cleaning a lot easier!

SMART DRIVER COURSE – Pre-pandemic; this was offered periodically by AARP at the Vienna Community Center or other nearby locations. It's a driver safety class that takes two days to complete. Afterward, a certificate is issued, which, after being submitted to your insurance company, may result in a premium reduction. You might want to consider taking this course which is designed for those over 50 years of age. It's a good thing to review safe driving habits and to learn how aging affects the way we drive.

The online course can be found at www.aarp.org/drivesafe31. The cost is $29.95, less $6 if you're an AARP member. Additional discounts may also apply. The course may be taken at your own pace, which makes it very convenient.

ADMINISTERING A DECEDENT'S ESTATE – This free class is offered to mature adults by Vienna Parks & Recreation. The lecture is designed to guide an executor, personal representative or trustee through all the hoops of settling an estate and make it as quick and painless as possible. It's a big responsibility to be an executor of someone's estate, and attending this class will help you understand all the ins-and-outs of what to do. The presenter is attorney Allison Mathey Lambeth who will introduce you to the four areas where a fiduciary works to settle an estate. The event will be on Tuesday, March 15, from 10-11 am at the Vienna Community Center.

Another class that will be of great interest to some of you is "Aging in Your Home." Whether or not to move into a retirement community or remain in your own home is a big decision. Often confusing as well, because aging in place doesn't mean you continue to go along just as you have. Time changes everything.... sometimes, we're confronted by unexpected health problems, our mobility decreases, and energy levels go down. We find we can't keep up the way we used to. Modifications to the house may be necessary for us to remain where we are.

If you're looking to improve your living environment but not ready to move, consider attending this class. Learn best practices and philosophies from Home Care, Realtor, Builder, and other senior-focused business professionals. You'll also learn how to optimize your living environment. Realtor Jeff Wu and home builder Norm Gardner along with John Kipps of ComfortCare will be sharing their insights. This class will meet on Thursday, March 17, from 10-11 am at the Vienna Community Center. There is no charge. For planning purposes, please call 703-255-0360 to let them know you'll be there for this or for the class mentioned above.

CALLING ALL PHOTOGRAPHERS – A Photography Contest and Exhibit is being planned at the Vienna Community Center on Saturday, March 19, from 1 pm-3 pm, and Sunday, March 26 from Noon-3 pm. It's open to metropolitan area amateur photographers. Applications are available online at Vienna.gov or at the front desk of the Community Center. The entry fee is $10. For more information, call 703-255-5738.

ELDER WISDOM – Each of us is an artist of our days. The greater our integrity and awareness, the more original and creative our time will become. Let's make the most of it!
